Detailed Fiscal Analysis

In 1979, the state conveyed two parcels of land totaling 1.496 acres in the City of Bowling Green to Wood County Mental Health Clinic, Inc., which later merged into Behavioral Connections of Wood County, Inc. However, the deed that effected the conveyance contained reservations and reversions that included the stipulation that Bowling Green State University students and employees were to have access to this property and any improvements made to it. The bill transfers these remaining rights in the property to Behavioral Connections of Wood County, Inc. This transfer does not have a fiscal effect.
