CONTENT AND OPERATION

Corruption of a minor

Existing law

Existing law prohibits a person who is 18 years of age or older from engaging in sexual conduct with another, who is not the spouse of the offender, when the offender knows the other person is 13 years of age or older but less than 16 years of age, or the offender is reckless in that regard.¹ A person who violates this prohibition is guilty of corruption of a minor, a felony of the fourth degree. If the offender is less than four years older than the other person, corruption of a minor is a misdemeanor of the first degree. (R.C. 2907.04.)

¹ "Sexual conduct" means vaginal intercourse between a male and female; anal intercourse, fellatio, and cunnilingus between persons regardless of sex; and, without privilege to do so, the insertion, however slight, of any part of the body or any instrument, apparatus, or other object into the vaginal or anal cavity of another. Penetration, however slight, is sufficient to complete vaginal or anal intercourse. (R.C. 2907.01(A).)

Operation of the bill

The bill renames "corruption of a minor" as "unlawful sexual conduct with a minor" (R.C. 2907.04(B) and 3319.311(E)).

Except as provided in the following paragraph, the bill enhances to a felony of the third degree the penalty for committing unlawful sexual conduct with a minor if the offender is ten or more years older than the other person. Thus, under the bill, if the offender is less than four years older than the other person, unlawful sexual conduct with a minor is a misdemeanor of the first degree. If the offender is four or more years older than the other person and is less than ten years older than the other person, unlawful sexual conduct with a minor is a felony of the fourth degree. If the offender is ten or more years older than the other person, unlawful sexual conduct with a minor is a felony of the third degree. (R.C. 2907.04(B)(1), (2), and (3).)

The bill also enhances the penalty for committing unlawful sexual conduct with a minor if the offender previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to rape, sexual battery, or unlawful sexual conduct with a minor (corruption of a minor) or the former offense of felonious sexual penetration. Under these circumstances, unlawful sexual conduct with a minor is a felony of the second degree. (R.C. 2907.04(B)(4).)

Technical change

Existing law

The following provisions in the Revised Code refer to a child alleged to be or adjudicated a delinquent child for violating R.C. 2907.04 (corruption of a minor under existing law), including:

(1) A provision requiring, when a complaint has been filed alleging that a child is delinquent by reason of having committed an act that would constitute one of specified sex offenses if committed by an adult and the arresting authority, a court, or a probation officer discovers that the child or a person whom the child caused to engage in sexual activity has a communicable disease, the arresting authority, court, or probation officer immediately must notify the victim of the delinquent act of the nature of the disease (R.C. 2151.14(C)).

(2) A provision regarding DNA testing of children adjudicated to be delinquent children for violating certain provisions in the Revised Code (R.C. 2151.315(D)).

(3) A provision regarding videotaped depositions and televised and recorded testimony in juvenile proceedings when the child is alleged to have violated certain provisions in the Revised Code (R.C. 2151.3511(A)(2)).

Operation of the bill

The bill repeals the reference to section R.C. 2907.04 (corruption of a minor) from these provisions. R.C. 2907.04 can only be violated by a person 18 years of age or older; a child never can violate the section. (R.C. 2151.14(C), 2151.315(D), and 2151.3511(A)(2).)
