BILL SUMMARY

- Authorizes the Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University to convey real estate located in Wood County.
- Authorizes the Governor and the Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University to convey real estate located in Wood County.

CONTENT AND OPERATION

The conveyance of the Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University

The bill authorizes the Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University to execute deeds in the name of the Board of Trustees conveying to purchasers and the purchasers' heirs and assigns or successors and assigns all of the Board of Trustees' right, title, and interest in any portion of the real estate located in Wood County and further described in the bill (Section 1(A)).

Prior to executing a deed to convey a portion of the real estate, the Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University must survey the real estate to be conveyed, prepare a legal description of that real estate, and deliver the description to the Auditor of State for preparation of the deed (Section 1(B)).

The consideration for the conveyance is a purchase price acceptable to the Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University, apparently following a survey by a licensed surveyor and an appraisal by one or more disinterested persons (Section 1(C)).

The Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University must convey the real estate, or any portion of the real estate, only to persons whose intended use of the real estate is consistent with the purposes of Bowling Green State University. These purposes include facilitating the broadening of the economic base of Wood County and the City of Bowling Green. (Section 1(D).)

Any offer to purchase the real estate or any portion of the real estate must be accompanied by a deposit of up to 10% of the purchase price as determined appropriate by the Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University; the deposit must be in the form of a money order, bank draft, or certified check. The balance of the purchase price must be paid within 60 days after notification of acceptance of the offer has been sent by the Board of Trustees to the offeror, or at such later time as is specified in the contract of sale. If an offer has been accepted and the offeror does not pay the balance within these time limits, the offeror forfeits the deposit to the Board of Trustees as liquidated damages. (Section 1(E).)

The bill provides for following the procedures in codified law (sec. 5301.13) for the preparation, execution, and recording of a deed to the real estate upon payment of the purchase price (Section 1(F)).

Advertising costs, appraisal fees, and all other costs of sale of the real estate must be paid by the Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University unless otherwise specified in the contract of sale (Section 1(G)).

The net proceeds of the sales of the real estate, or any portion of the real estate, must be paid to Bowling Green State University and deposited in the appropriate University accounts for purposes determined by the Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University (Section 1(H)).

The Governor's conveyance

The bill authorizes the Governor to execute deeds in the name of the state conveying to purchasers and the purchasers' heirs and assigns or successors and assigns all of the state's right, title, and interest in any portion of the real estate located in Wood County and further described in the bill (Section 2(A)).

Prior to executing a deed to convey a portion of the real estate, the Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University must survey the real estate to be conveyed, prepare a legal description of that real estate, and deliver the description to the Auditor of State for preparation of the deed (Section 2(B)).

The consideration for the conveyance is a purchase price acceptable to the Board of Trustees of Bowling Green State University following a survey by a licensed surveyor and an appraisal by one or more disinterested persons (Section 2(C)).
