BILL SUMMARY

- Designates the portion of Interstate 75 from the Maumee River to the Michigan border as the "Korean War Veterans' Memorial Highway."
- Permits the Director to erect suitable markers on that portion of the highway indicating its name.

CONTENT AND OPERATION

Korean War Veterans' Memorial Highway

(sec. 5533.52)

Under current law, two portions of United States Route 36 are known as the "Korean War Veterans' Memorial Highway":

(A) The portion located from the boundary of Coshocton and Tuscarawas Counties and extending to Interstate 77; and

(B) The portion located from the boundary of Champaign and Miami Counties and extending through Darke County to the Indiana border.

The Director of Transportation is authorized to erect suitable markers on the highway at both locations indicating the name.

Under the bill, the portion of Interstate 75 commencing at the Maumee River and extending to the Michigan border also will be known as the "Korean War Veterans' Memorial Highway." The bill permits the Director to erect suitable markers on the designated portions of that highway indicating its name.
