CONTENT AND OPERATION

The bill requires the Liquor Control Commission, in considering whether to suspend or revoke a permit issued under the Liquor Permit Law that authorizes the sale of beer or intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises where sold or to issue an order allowing a permit holder to elect to pay a forfeiture rather than have the permit suspended under existing law, to consider whether the permit holder, if the permit holder is an individual, and the permit holder's employees have successfully completed a training program that includes all of the following:

- (1) Instruction on the statutes and rules that govern the sale of beer and intoxicating liquor;
- (2) Instruction on the prevention of the illegal serving of beer and intoxicating liquor to persons under 21 years of age;
- (3) Use of conflict management skills in alcohol-related situations;
- (4) Instruction on methods to safely evacuate the permit premises of a permit holder in an emergency (sec. 4301.253(B)(1)).

Under the bill, "individual" means an individual who holds a liquor permit issued under the Liquor Permit Law (sec. 4301.253(A)).

As indicated above, the bill's provisions apply only to permit holders whose permit authorizes the sale of beer or intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises where sold (sec. 4301.253(B)(2)).
