

H.B. 240

126th General Assembly
(As Introduced)

Rep. Law

---

BILL SUMMARY

- Prohibits certain counties from moving county department of job and family services personnel to other offices without the prior approval of the Director of Job and Family Services.

CONTENT AND OPERATION

Background

Current law provides for the establishment of a county department of job and family services in each county of the state. Among the powers and responsibilities of these county departments are carrying out various public family services-related duties assigned by the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, administering disability financial assistance and disability medical assistance, and cooperating with state and federal authorities and acting as their agent in any matter relating to family services. (R.C. 329.01 and 329.04(A)--not in the bill.)

Changes made by the bill

The bill provides that if the offices of a county department of job and family services are located in the most populous municipal corporation of the county, no employee of that county department is to be moved to an office in another municipal corporation without the prior approval of the Director of Job and Family Services (R.C. 329.024).
