BILL SUMMARY

- Designates the portion of Interstate 90 located within the municipal corporation of Euclid in Cuyahoga County only as the "Patrolman George Brentar Memorial Highway" and authorizes the Director of Transportation to erect suitable markers along the highway indicating its name.

CONTENT AND OPERATION

Current law designates Interstate Highway 90 from the Pennsylvania border in Ashtabula County westward to its intersection with the Ohio Turnpike in Lorain County as the "Amvets Highway" (R.C. 5533.35, not in the bill). The bill provides that in addition to this existing designation, the portion of Interstate 90 located within the municipal corporation of Euclid in Cuyahoga County only also is to be known as the "Patrolman George Brentar Memorial Highway." The Director of Transportation is authorized to erect suitable markers along the highway indicating its name. (R.C. 5533.95.)

COMMENT

Patrolman George Brentar of the Euclid police department died in a motor vehicle accident while on duty on October 10, 2007.
