Community notification under the SORN Law

Persons and entities that must be provided the notice

Current law

Under the current Sex Offender Registration and Notification Law (SORN Law), regardless of when the offense was committed, if a person is convicted of, pleads guilty to, has been convicted of, or has pleaded guilty to a sexually oriented offense or a child-victim oriented offense or is or has been adjudicated a delinquent child for committing a "sexually oriented offense" or a "child-victim oriented offense" and is classified a "juvenile offender registrant" or is an out-of-state juvenile offender registrant based on that adjudication and who is in a specified category of offenders and delinquent children, the sheriff with whom the offender or delinquent child most recently registered under that Law and the sheriff to whom the offender or delinquent child most recently sent a notice of intent to reside under that Law, within a specified period of time, must provide a written notice containing specified information to specified persons and entities in the community.¹ The categories of offenders and delinquent children with respect to whom the community notification provisions apply, the time within which the written notice must be provided, and the content of the written notice are described below in "Other details of community notification mechanism." Definitions of the terms and phrases used in this analysis that are in quotation marks are set forth below in "Definitions."

The sheriff with whom the offender or delinquent child has most recently registered and the sheriff to whom the offender or delinquent child most recently sent a notice of intent to reside must provide the written notice to all of the following persons:²

² R.C. 2950.11(A) and (C).

(1) Neighbors of the offender or delinquent child, in accordance with the following:

- Any occupant of each residential unit that is located within 1,000 feet of the offender's or child's residential premises, is within the county served by the sheriff, and is not in a multi-unit building;
- If the offender or child resides in a multi-unit building, any occupant of each residential unit that is located in that multi-unit building and shares a common hallway with the offender or child;
- The building manager, or the person the building owner or condominium unit owners association authorizes to exercise management and control, of each multi-unit building that is located within 1,000 feet of the offender's or child's residential premises, including a multi-unit building in which the offender or child resides, and is within the county served by the sheriff (in addition to this notice, the sheriff must either post the notice in the building in a specified manner or provide it to all building occupants); and
- All additional persons who are within any category of neighbors of the offender or child that the Attorney General (the AG) by rule requires to be provided the notice and who reside within the sheriff's county;

(2) Specified officials of the public children services agency that has jurisdiction within the "specified geographical notification area" and is located within the sheriff's county;

(3) Specified officials of each school district, school, and chartered nonpublic school within the specified geographical notification area and located within the sheriff's county, including the principal of the school the child attends or the appointing or hiring authority of each chartered nonpublic school, and, regardless of the school's location, the appointing or hiring officer of a chartered nonpublic school that the delinquent child attends;

(4) Specified officials of each preschool program and each child and family day-care center or home located within the specified geographical notification area and within the sheriff's county;

(5) Specified officials of each institution of higher education located within the specified geographical notification area and within the sheriff's county and the chief law enforcement officer of the university or campus law enforcement agency serving that institution;

(6) The sheriff of each county that includes any portion of the specified geographical notification area (this sheriff then has the duty to provide the written notices to all the other persons and entities listed above in paragraphs (1) to (5), (7), and (8));

(7) If the offender or child resides within the sheriff's county, the chief of police, marshal, or other chief law enforcement officer of the municipality in which the offender or delinquent child resides or, if the offender or delinquent child resides in an unincorporated area, the constable or police chief of the township in which the offender or delinquent child resides;

(8) Volunteer organizations in which contact with minors or other vulnerable individuals might occur or any organization, company, or individual who requests notification regarding a specific offender or child or regarding all offenders or children who are located in the specified geographical notification area.

Operation of the bill

The bill additionally requires the sheriff with whom the offender or delinquent child has most recently registered under the SORN Law and the sheriff to whom the offender or delinquent child most recently sent a notice of intent to reside under that Law to provide the written notice to the manager of a "long-term care facility" where the offender or delinquent child will reside or that is located within the specified geographical notification area and within the county served by the sheriff. The manager who receives the notice is required to provide a copy of the notice to all residents of the facility and to the "sponsor" of each of those residents. The manager and facility are generally immune from liability in a civil action to recover damages for injury, death, or loss to person or property allegedly caused by an act or omission in connection with this notification duty. Immunity does not apply if, in relation to the act or omission in question, any of the following apply: (1) the act or omission was manifestly outside the scope of the person's employment or official responsibilities, (2) the act or omission was with malicious purpose, in bad faith, or in a wanton or reckless manner, or (3) liability for the act or omission is expressly imposed by a section of the Revised Code.³

The notice must include the same information and be provided in the same manner and within the same period of time as under existing law.⁴

³ R.C. 2950.11(A)(11), 2950.12(A)(8), and 2950.12(B).

⁴ R.C. 2950.11(C) and (D).

The bill additionally directs the Department of Health to compile, maintain, and update in January and July of each year, a list of all long-term care facilities that contains the name of each long-term care facility, the county in which it is located, and its address and telephone number. The sheriff who is required to provide community notification may request this information from the Department of Health, and the Department must provide the information to the sheriff.⁵

Other details of community notification mechanism

Categories of offenders and delinquent children with respect to whom community notification applies

Under existing law, unchanged by the bill, except as described in the last paragraph in this part of the analysis, the community notification provisions apply to an offender or delinquent child who is in any of the following categories:⁶

(1) An offender who is a "Tier III sex offender/child-victim offender";

(2) A delinquent child who is a "public registry-qualified juvenile offender registrant" and for whom a juvenile court has not removed the child's duty to comply with the SORN Law;

(3) A delinquent child who is a Tier III sex offender/child-victim offender and is not a public registry-qualified juvenile offender registrant if the child was subjected to the community notification provisions prior to January 1, 2008, as a sexual predator, habitual sex offender, child-victim predator, or habitual child-victim offender and if a juvenile court has not removed the child's duty to comply with the SORN Law;

(4) A delinquent child who is a Tier III sex offender/child-victim offender and is not a public registry-qualified juvenile offender registrant if the delinquent child was classified a juvenile offender registrant on or after January 1, 2008, the court imposed a requirement subjecting the delinquent child to the community notification provisions, and a juvenile court has not removed the child's duty to comply with the SORN Law.

The community notification provisions do not apply to a person described in any of the above four categories if a court finds at a hearing, after considering specified factors, that the person would not be subject to the notification provisions as they existed immediately prior to January 1, 2008.

⁵ R.C. 2950.11(G)(4) and (5).

⁶ R.C. 2950.11(B).

Time for giving community notification notice

Under existing law, unchanged by the bill, a sheriff required to provide a community notification notice regarding an offender or delinquent child must provide the notice to the specified neighbors and to the specified law enforcement personnel as soon as practicable, but no later than five days after the offender sends the notice of intent to reside to the sheriff and again no later than five days after the offender or delinquent child registers with the sheriff (or, if the sheriff is a recipient sheriff, no later than five days after the sheriff is provided the notice by another sheriff). A sheriff required to provide notices regarding an offender or delinquent child must provide the notices to all other specified persons and entities as soon as practicable, but not later than seven days after the offender or delinquent child registers with the sheriff (or, if the sheriff is a recipient sheriff, no later than five days after the sheriff is provided the notice by another sheriff).

If an offender or delinquent child with respect to whom the community notification provisions applies verifies the offender's or child's current residence, school, institution of higher education, or place of employment address, as applicable, with a sheriff, the sheriff may provide a written notice to the persons to whom the community notification provisions regarding registration apply.⁷

SORN Law background

The SORN Law is contained in R.C. Chapter 2950. It requires a person who is convicted of or pleads guilty to a "sexually oriented offense" or a "child-victim oriented offense" to register with the sheriff of the county in which the person was convicted of or pleaded guilty to the offense, to register with the appropriate sheriff the offender's residence address and a school, institution of higher education, or work address, to provide notice of a change of address and register the new address, and to periodically verify the registered address. There is also a restriction against residing within 1,000 feet of any school premises, a preschool, or child day-care premises if a person has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a sexually oriented offense or a child-victim oriented offense.¹⁶ Children who are adjudicated delinquent children for committing a sexually oriented offense or a child-victim oriented offense if committed by an adult and who are classified by the juvenile court as "juvenile offender registrants" also generally are subject to these duties (but they are subject to the school, institution of higher education, and work address provisions only in specified circumstances and are not subject to the residency restriction).¹⁷

An offender who is convicted of or pleads guilty to a sexually oriented offense or a child-victim oriented offense and who is classified a "Tier III sex offender/child-victim offender" or a child who is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing any such offense and is classified a juvenile offender registrant and a Tier III sex offender/child-victim offender also has a duty to provide notice of an intent to reside in a county.¹⁸

Additionally, certain categories of offenders and delinquent children who must register under the SORN Law also are subject to mechanisms for providing victim notification of a residence address the person registers. The victim notification provisions apply to an offender or delinquent child who is in any of the four specified categories with respect to whom the SORN Law community notification provisions apply (except that the requirement that there is a court finding that the offender or child would have been subject to community notification prior to January 1, 2008, does not apply with respect to victim notification).¹⁹
