Legal Basis: Section 419.10 of Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th G.A. (originally established by Am. Sub. H.B. 152 of the 120th G.A., the main operating appropriations act covering FYs 1994 and 1995)

Purpose: The line item functions as the funding mechanism for the state's RECLAIM Ohio program, which is shorthand for Reasoned and Equitable Community and Local Alternatives to Incarceration of Minors. RECLAIM Ohio was launched as a pilot in January 1994 and taken statewide in 1995. RECLAIM Ohio funds are used to provide institutional placement and community program services to youths who have been convicted of a felony offense, and to any delinquent child, unruly child, or juvenile traffic offender who is under the jurisdiction of a juvenile court.

Under the formula, fiscal allocations for juvenile courts, community corrections facilities (CCFs), and the Department are established at the beginning of each fiscal year. The intent by doing so is to enable all parties to plan on an annual basis, and better manage their programs and infrastructure. These amounts are set by the Director of the Department of Youth Services with the advice of the RECLAIM Advisory Committee.

Temporary law contained in Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th G.A. earmarks $25,000 in each of FYs 2008 and 2009 to be distributed directly to the Lighthouse Youth Services Wrap-Around Program.

Purpose: Pursuant to ongoing temporary law, the line item's purpose is to fund debt service payments made to the Ohio Building Authority for its obligations incurred as a result of issuing the bonds that cover the Department's capital appropriations. The line item's appropriation authority and actual spending levels are set and controlled by the Office of Budget and Management, and not by the Department. The moneys made available as a result of these bonds have financed the design, construction, renovation, and rehabilitation phases of various departmental capital projects, as well as the construction and renovation costs associated with community projects (community corrections facilities, county detention centers, and the like).

Purpose: The line item funds a subsidy program through which all juvenile courts receive moneys to provide services and programs to divert at-risk, unruly, and delinquent youths from entering the juvenile justice system. These funds are distributed according to a modified per capita formula that is specified in the Revised Code.

Purpose: The line item represents the consolidation of funding for parole/aftercare operations previously funded through GRF line items 470-100, Personal Services, 470-200, Maintenance, and 470-300, Equipment. Am. Sub. H.B. 215 of the 122nd G.A., the main operating appropriations act covering FYs 1998 and 1999, subsequently shifted some funding from GRF line item 470-402, Community Program Services, into this line item as well. The funding that was shifted reflected the portion of line item 470-402 that had traditionally financed the residential placement of paroled youth, and non-residential programs like GED preparation, substance abuse treatment, counseling, and the like for parolees. The amount of funding that was shifted totaled close to $5 million annually.

Purpose: Moneys deposited to the credit of the fund are used for the purpose of implementing the Statewide Collaborative Agreement with Law Enforcement (SCALE). Specifically, the Department of Youth Services uses these moneys to provide additional oversight and supervision of high risk youth and violent youth offenders on parole and probation through contracts with county sheriffs and municipal police departments for intensive surveillance and warrant execution services. The Department enters into a contract with the appropriate local law enforcement agency for this purpose and agrees to pay the overtime of the officers involved in the provision of these services. Participating local jurisdictions include Clark County and the cities of Xenia, Lima, Marion, Canton, Akron, and Zanesville.

Legal Basis: Section 419.10 of Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th G.A. (originally established by Controlling Board on August 18, 1986)

Purpose: Title V funds must be used for prevention and early intervention programs for at-risk youth and/or for youth that have had informal contact with the juvenile justice system for nonviolent acts or status offenses. The types of programs eligible for funding include, but are not limited to, truancy mediation, dispute resolution, mentoring, asset and skill building, tutoring and homework assistance, intensive home-based treatment, work programs and life skills. The Department is permitted to use up to 5% of the award amount for administrative costs, subject to a 50% state match. The remaining amount must be allocated to units of local government for use by local community agencies.

Ohio's allocation of this federal funding has steadily declined over the last six or so years. In FY 2001, Ohio's allocation of Title V moneys totaled $1.52 million, and, by FYs 2004 and 2005, that annual allocation had dropped into the range of $500,000-$600,000. Since that time, Ohio's annual allocation of Title V moneys has decreased to less than $100,000. The Department has estimated that, in FYs 2008 and 2009, the available federal funding for Title V purposes may only support implementation of one program in each year.

Purpose: Revenues deposited to the credit of the fund are federal formula grant funds to be used to provide the state and local units of government with moneys to develop programs to strengthen and promote greater accountability in the juvenile justice system. These formula grants are for use in 16 program areas, including, but not limited to: (1) developing, implementing, and administering graduated sanctions for juvenile offenders, (2) building, expanding, renovating or operating temporary or permanent juvenile correction, detention, or corrections facilities, (3) hiring certain juvenile justice system personnel, (4) enabling prosecutors to address drug, gang, and youth violence problems and for related technology, equipment and training, (5) establishing and maintaining training programs, (6) establishing juvenile gun and drug courts for the prosecution and adjudication of juvenile firearms offenders, (7) establishing and maintaining a system of juvenile records designed to promote public safety, (8) establishing and maintaining interagency information-sharing programs, accountability-based programs, programs to conduct risk and needs assessments of juvenile offenders, and (9) establishing and maintaining restorative justice programs.

The program requires a cash match of 10 percent of total program costs. Federal funds may not exceed 90 percent of total program costs. The state is required to establish a separate fund for each federal fiscal year in which JABG funding is awarded and all investment earnings on the cash balance in each fund must be credited to that fund.

The Department is permitted to use up to 5% of the award amount for administrative costs, subject to a 10% state match. The Department must allocate 75% of the total award amount to local agencies, and the remaining 20% may be used to support state programs.

The program requires a cash match of 10 percent of total program costs. Federal funds may not exceed 90 percent of total program costs. The state is required to establish a separate fund for each federal fiscal year in which JABG funding is awarded and all investment earnings on the cash balance in each fund must be credited to that fund.

The Department is permitted to use up to 5% of the award amount for administrative costs, subject to a 10% state match. The Department must allocate 75% of the total award amount to local agencies, and the remaining 20% may be used to support state programs.

Purpose: The moneys transferred to the fund support the Department's Partnerships for Success initiative, the purpose of which is to build capacity within counties to effectively prevent and respond to child and adolescent problem behaviors, while promoting positive youth development. At the end of FY 2007, the number of participating counties totaled 39. According to the Department, the cash transfers scheduled for FYs 2008 and 2009 will allow an additional five counties to receive a subsidy in FY 2008, followed by another five counties in FY 2009, which would bring the total number of participating counties up to 49 by the close of the biennium. A participating county is funded over a two-year period, after which the Department continues to provide technical assistance and training tailored to the circumstances of each county being served.
