Purpose: The line item contains money appropriated for the purpose of funding the payroll, purchased personal service, maintenance, and equipment costs associated with the State Legal Defense Services program series, the function of which is to provide legal representation and services in non-capital and capital cases to indigent adults, juveniles, and incarcerated individuals in state and federal courts when Ohio law, the Ohio Constitution, or the U.S. Constitution requires representation. Non-capital and capital cases are handled by the Commission's Legal Division and Death Penalty Division, respectively.

Purpose: The line item provides funding for the state's share of operating the Multi-County Branch Office Program. The program, which began operation on January 1, 1991, provides indigent defense services as an alternative to traditional appointed counsel or county public defender offices to ten counties in south and southeastern Ohio: Adams, Athens, Brown, Fayette, Jackson, Meigs, Pickaway, Pike, Ross, and Washington. These ten participating counties have essentially each entered into a contract with the Commission under which the state provides indigent defense services in their respective counties. Branch offices are located in Athens, Ross, and Washington counties. In addition to employing state public defenders, the Commission contracts with private attorneys in all ten counties.

Each county's contribution to the program is deposited in the state treasury to the credit of Fund 4C70 (line item 019601, Multi-County: County Share). The funding split between the state and county shares is the same as it is for the Commission's much larger statewide County Reimbursement Program under which the state is responsible for up to 50% of a county's indigent defense costs.

(originally established by Am. Sub. H.B. 291 of the 115th G.A., the main operating appropriations act covering FY 1984 and FY 1985)

Purpose: The line item funds the state's share of the Trumbull County Branch Office's annual operating expenses. The branch office, which has been in operation since 1984, provides indigent criminal defense representation throughout the courts of Trumbull County. A contract is negotiated annually with Trumbull County that designates the duties of the branch office and determines the percentage of financial contribution paid by both parties to fund the office. The percentage paid by each mirrors the reimbursement rate applicable to all counties under either the assigned counsel or county public defender systems. Approximately 10% of the Trumbull County contract obligation is contributed by participating municipalities. The local share of the branch office is deposited in the state treasury to the credit of Fund 4X70 (line item 019610, Trumbull County - County Share).

Purpose: Pursuant to temporary law, the line item is used exclusively for the Commission's Pro Bono Training Program, under which it contracts with private and non-profit training companies to provide continuing legal education (CLE) certified seminars to attorneys who practice criminal indigent defense law. The Commission pays the seminar companies a fee for each attorney who attends a seminar under the program. The seminar companies presently charge $125 per attorney for a regular one-day seminar and $200 per attorney for the two-day Rule 20 seminars.

The Commission allows private attorneys to attend seminars at no cost to the attorney. In exchange for free attendance, each attorney must provide one pro bono (for free) case for every seminar attended. Pro bono cases must be provided within one year of the seminar date, and pro bono attorneys are limited to two seminars per year. Public defenders also are limited to two seminars per year.

Sub. H.B. 1 of the 128th G.A. (originally established by Am. Sub. H.B. 164 of the 111th G.A., the act establishing state, county, and joint county public defenders)

Purpose: Since the start of FY 2006, the line item has been used to reimburse counties for up to 50% of their indigent defense expenditures on non-capital and capital cases. If the available appropriations are insufficient to reimburse 50% of the indigent defense expenditures for non-capital and capital cases, then the reimbursement percentage for each of the public defender offices and appointed counsel systems is reduced equally. Prior to FY 2006, indigent defense expenditures for capital cases were reimbursed through the Commission's GRF line item 019503, County Reimbursement - Capital Cases. Effective FY 2006, the Capital Cases line item's funding and purpose were consolidated within GRF line item 019501, County Reimbursement.

Purpose: The line item is used to disburse funding to county commissioners in order to provide additional reimbursement for the cost incurred by counties in providing criminal legal services to indigent defendants pursuant to ORC Chapter 120. The amount disbursed to each county is allocated proportionately on the basis of the total amount of reimbursement paid to all of the counties during the most recent fiscal year for which data is available and as calculated by the Commission.

Source: General Services Fund Group: Quarterly legal services payments transferred through an interdepartmental agreement from the GRF maintenance budget of the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction's Marion Correctional Institution

Legal Basis: Discontinued line item (originally established by Controlling Board in 1978)

Purpose: The line item funded an inmate legal assistance program at the state's Marion Correctional Institution, a purpose it has served since 1991. Specifically covered were the payroll, maintenance, and equipment costs associated with one legal services attorney. There are no appropriations for this purpose in either of FY 2010 or FY 2011, as the attorney who ran the law library has been transferred to the Commission's Columbus office and the program discontinued.

The program started at the Marion Correctional Institution in response to a court case that led to a mandate that one attorney be located at the correctional institution to run the prison's law library. In 1987, the program shifted to one that utilized law school interns to provide more general legal assistance. In 1991, an attorney took over the running of the correctional institution's law library and also provided representation to inmates at parole revocation hearings.

Purpose: The Commission is required to expend moneys deposited to the credit of the fund for the sole purpose of conducting programs having a general objective of training and educating attorneys and others in the legal representation of indigent persons. As virtually no revenues have been generated for this purpose in the last few years, there has been no expenditure activity. In light of the absence of any cash flow activity, Am. Sub. Legal Basis: Section 361.10 of Am. Sub. H.B. 1 of the 128th G.A. (originally established by Controlling Board on March 2, 1998)

Purpose: Moneys credited to the fund are used by the Commission's Death Penalty Division to provide, coordinate, and supervise post-trial legal representation to indigent defendants in federal courts on federal habeas corpus proceedings where the defendant is appealing the imposition of a death sentence by a state trial court. Habeas corpus is an appeal to the federal courts for wrongful conviction and unconstitutional imprisonment. A habeas petition is filed after a defendant has exhausted his or her direct appeal and state postconviction remedies. In this instance, a defendant combines all of the prior claims raised on direct appeal and state postconviction and he or she raises them in one petition in the United States District Court. All habeas cases, win or lose, are reviewed by the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit in Cincinnati. In this habeas petition the defendant may only seek relief on claims that involve a violation of the United States Constitution, for example, a violation of the 6th Amendment right to effective counsel or a violation of the 8th Amendment right to present mitigating evidence for sentencing.
