Purpose: This line item is used to pay for the costs of the community residential program that provides supervision and treatment services for offenders released from state prisons, referred by courts of common pleas, or sanctioned because of a violation of their conditions of supervision. Funds are primarily used to pay for 2,300-plus contracted halfway house beds, including services such as drug and alcohol treatment, electronic monitoring, job placement, educational programs, and specialized programs for sex offenders and mentally ill offenders. Other programs funded with this money include community residential centers, permanent supportive housing, community transitional housing, treatment transfer, and electronic monitoring.

Purpose: This line item is used to pay for subsidies that fund the operation of CBCFs, which can be formed by counties or groups of counties with populations of 200,000 or more. These facilities divert nonviolent felony offenders from state prison and are operated by facility governing boards, which are advised by judicial advisory boards. The state provides 100% of the financing for the construction, renovation, maintenance, and operation of these residential facilities, each of which house up to 200 felony offenders and offer services such as education, job training, and substance abuse treatment as an alternative to incarceration in state prison. Temporary law in H.B. 166 of the 133rd G.A. requires $2,970,000 in FY 2020 and $3,053,977 in FY 2021 to be used to support CBCF staff retention.
