
CASINO CONTROL COMMISSION

- Abolishes the Permanent Joint Committee on Gaming and Wagering, consisting of three members of the House and three members of the Senate, that was to study and submit recommendations on various items related to gaming, including reviewing license fees and penalties.

Permanent Joint Committee on Gaming and Wagering

(R.C. 3772.032 (repealed), with conforming changes in R.C. 3772.03, 3772.17, 3772.99, and 5119.47)

The act abolishes the Permanent Joint Committee on Gaming and Wagering. The Committee was tasked with reviewing, studying, and submitting recommendations and reports on various items related to gaming, including reviewing license fees and penalties under the Casino Law.

