“I have not found any position in business or government that could possibly expose a recent graduate to more varied subjects, or more opportunities to make a real difference in people’s lives and public policy than the LSC [fellowship]. This program leapfrogs participants ahead of their peers with experience and responsibility.”

-Larry Heckner

“The Legislative Service Commission [fellowship] is a terrific foundation for careers because the program quickly immerses [fellows] into varied opportunities that include public policy, public relations, constituent relations, and the chance to work with talented and diverse personalities.”

-Scott F. Sturges

*“The LSC [fellowship] program was my entry into the legislative process.
I served as Legislative Assistant to the late Senator William F. Bowen for several years and watched the passage of a lot of significant legislation.”*
