“The LSC [fellowship] program is a great starting point for a career in government. I learned how state government really works, and the woman legislator for whom I worked was a tremendous role model for me. I also made some good friends—another [fellow] with whom I shared an office is still one of my closest friends today, many years later.”

“The experience of the LSC [fellowship] program led directly to my various professional opportunities. Without the [fellowship], I would not have been able to follow the career path I have taken in government relations and association management. As a [fellow], I developed multiple skill sets that I still utilize to this day, which, along with the contacts I have made, have shaped my professional life.”

-Timothy A. White
