“The LSC [fellowship] allowed me to gain an experience that few other Ohioans have. The unique skills and knowledge developed during the [fellowship] and my subsequent time as a legislative aide and budget analyst continue to open doors for my career. Many of the relationships started during the [fellowship] continue, in fact a group of us still meet for a whole weekend together at least once a year.”

-Randy Cole

“I feel that the LSC [fellowship] is one of the best first “real” jobs for a college graduate. It provided me with the confidence to work well with a variety of people and adapt to new responsibilities. This helped when I moved to New Zealand without much of an idea of what type of job I wanted. Currently, I assist with a study abroad program for American students who come to New Zealand for a semester.”

-Carol DuBois-Wright

"Meaningful, lasting friendships and realistic exposure to politics, that's how I benefited from the LSC [fellowship] program."

-Greg Moody

"I had a great experience in the LSC [fellowship] program, which introduced me to the legislative and political processes. It also prompted me to enter law school. As a 1996 graduate of the Howard University School of Law, I realize how my knowledge of the legislative process helped to prepare me for law school."
