“The LSC [fellowship] program has opened so many doors of opportunity and afforded me many contacts that I still call upon even years later from a different city. The experience definitely kick-started my career, which I’m now able to continue part-time while my children are young. I don’t worry about taking the time off, because I know I can count on the network I’ve been able to build both during and since my [fellowship] to quickly re-establish myself.”

-Tammy Reasoner
