Legal Basis: originally established by Am. Sub. H.B. 215 of the 122nd G.A.

Purpose: This special purpose account is used by the Office of Criminal Justice Services (CJS) to improve Ohio's criminal justice information systems. CJS utilizes the bulk of these funds to assist county clerks of court with computer system acquisitions and upgrades. The purpose of this assistance is to improve the capturing of data related to the disposition of criminal cases, information that is subsequently be transmitted, or reported, to the state, specifically to the Attorney General's Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation.

Legal Basis: originally established by Am. Sub. H.B. 117 of the 121st G.A.

Purpose: This special purpose account is used exclusively to support the Ohio Violence Prevention Center, which is housed under the auspices of the Office of Criminal Justice Services. The center functions as a state clearinghouse for information and technical assistance on issues related to violence and violence prevention, and makes grants that support local violence prevention initiatives as well. Annually, about one-half of this funding is distributed in the form of grants, with the remainder covering the center's operating expenses (payroll, purchased personal services, maintenance, and equipment).

Source: General Revenue Fund

Legal Basis: originally established by Am. Sub. H.B. 152 of the 120th G.A.; replaced GRF line item 195-499, State Match - Justice Programs, which reflected the period of time when the Office of Criminal Justice Services was part of the Department of Development's budget

Purpose: This special purpose account provides the required cash match for the state's participation in certain programs administered by the federal Department of Justice. These moneys principally match two federal grant programs: (1) the Byrne Memorial State and Local Law Enforcement Assistance Formula Grant Program (CFDA #16.579); and (2) the Title II Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (JJDP) Formula Grant Program (CFDA #16.540). Smaller amounts of this state matching money support various criminal justice assistance activities, including the federally required criminal justice information system steering committee and the federally initiated National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS).

Legal Basis: originally established by Controlling Board on September 27, 1993; funds transferred from the Controlling Board's line item 911-401, Emergency Purposes, pursuant to authority given the Director of Budget and Management under Section 26 of Am. Sub. H.B. 152 of the 120th G.A.

Purpose: This subsidy account covers certain local costs incurred in relation to the disturbance that occurred on April 11, 1993 at the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility in Lucasville. At the outset, funds were distributed for various expenses incurred by various local entities during, and immediately after, the disturbance, including Scioto County (sheriff, coroner, and engineer), the City of Portsmouth, and Jefferson Township. Subsequent to that time, the bulk of these funds have been distributed to Scioto County for the cost of prosecuting inmates who were charged with criminal offenses as a result of the disturbance.

Source: General Services Fund Group: primarily fees charged to law enforcement agencies for goods and services (crime reporting forms and annual software maintenance agreements) delivered in relation to the National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS); secondarily, small grants for onetime costs, such as publications, and registration fees for conferences and the like

Legal Basis: originally established by Controlling Board on October 12, 1993

Purpose: Moneys deposited into this account are used to support the purpose associated with the revenue being collected in the first place. Thus, NIBRS fees finance the printing of crime reporting forms (performed by the Office of State Printing) and the provision of NIBRS technical assistance to law enforcement, including software development and upgrades.

Legal Basis: originally established by Am. Sub. H.B. 152 of the 120th G.A.; replaced federal line item 195-604, Justice Programs, which reflected the period of time when the Office of Criminal Justice Services was part of the Department of Development’s budget

Purpose: Each of these forms of federal financial assistance comes attached with specifically authorized uses and use restrictions. Generally speaking, these federal awards cover programs to: (1) improve criminal justice information systems; (2) assist in drug law enforcement and improve the functioning of the criminal justice system; (3) address juvenile justice and delinquency prevention; and (4) reduce violence against women. Some of this federal revenue is used to support operating costs of the Office of Criminal Justice Services, however, most of it is distributed in the form of grants, typically to state agencies and state-supported universities, units of local governments or combined units of local government, regional planning units, and non-profit organizations.
