Purpose: The line item funds the payroll, maintenance, and equipment costs of the Court of Claims' Civil Division.

Source: General Revenue Fund

Legal Basis: As needed line item; ORC 2743.48

Purpose: The line item is used to pay a sum of money to those who have been judged wrongfully imprisoned, in addition to reasonable attorney fees and other expenses. When a wrongful imprisonment judgment is journalized, the Controlling Board, upon certification by the Court of Claims, transfers the sum necessary to the line item. Since the Controlling Board provides money for the awards on an as-needed basis, the line item does not receive a direct appropriation through the main operations appropriations act passed by each General Assembly. The necessary funds are typically transferred from moneys appropriated to the Controlling Board for the purpose of assisting state agencies and political subdivisions in responding to disasters and emergency situations.

Legal Basis: Discontinued line item (originally established by Am. Sub. H.B. 82 of the 111th G.A.; ORC 2743.191; revenue stream moved into the Office of the Attorney General's budget pursuant to Am. Sub. S.B. 153 of the 123rd G.A.)

Purpose: Prior to July 1, 2000, the revenue deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the fund was used for the purpose of compensating victims of crime, including all administrative costs incurred by the Court of Claims and the Office of the Attorney General. Revenue for various victims assistance activities and programs in the Office of the Attorney General's budget also drew on the fund. The amounts paid against claims awarded to victims were determined by commissioners of the Court of Claims, but the size of any award could not exceed $50,000 per victim per any one incident. The fund was eliminated from the Court's budget with the passage of Am. Sub. S.B. 153 of the 123rd G.A. and its involvement with the Victims of Crime Compensation Program was narrowed to an appellate function funded through Fund 5K2, the CLA Victims of Crime Fund.
