Legal Basis: Article VIII Section 2i of the Ohio Constitution; ORC 154.21; Section 363.10 of Am. Sub. H.B. 59 of the 130th G.A.

Purpose: This line item provides debt service payments to retire the special revenue bonds issued for financing capital improvements for state-supported colleges and universities. These special revenue bonds were issued before 2000 and all of them are scheduled to be retired by 2015. A 1999 constitutional amendment authorized the state to issue general obligation bonds for the purpose of financing capital improvements for higher education. In contrast with special revenue bonds, which are paid by a dedicated revenue source (in this case, GRF), general obligation bonds are backed by the full faith and credit of the state. Because of this additional backing, general obligation bonds can be issued at lower interest rates than special revenue bonds.

Purpose: This line item provides an eligible campus with the difference between its formula-determined debt service amount under the capital allocation formula used prior to 2012, and the actual debt service amount received by the campus. The funds can be used by the campus only for capital projects. From 1999 to 2012 BOR implemented an incentive-based capital funding policy which determined each campus's debt service amount through a formula. Campuses, other than the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center (OARDC), that received debt service amounts higher than their formula-determined amounts will have the difference deducted from their State Share of Instruction subsidy allocations. For OARDC, the difference is deducted from GRF line item 235535, Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center. These deducted funds are transferred into this line item. The transferred funds and the original appropriation for this item are distributed to campuses that received debt service amounts less than their formula-determined amounts.

Purpose: This line item funds the Ohio College Opportunity Grant (OCOG), a need-based financial aid program that had its first year of full implementation in FY 2010. OCOG uses the federally determined "Expected Family Contribution" (EFC) as the basis for determining grant awards. EFC is calculated using the information that students provide when they fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form, and is the same method that the federal government uses to determine eligibility for Pell Grants. In FY 2012 and FY 2013, OCOG awards for students of career colleges and schools were also funded by GSF line item 235667, Ohio College Opportunity Grant - Proprietary.

Source: General Revenue Fund Group: GRF

Legal Basis: ORC 5919.34; Section 363.10 of Am. Sub. H.B. 59 of the 130th G.A.

Purpose: This line item supports the National Guard Scholarship Program that provides 100% tuition to Ohio National Guard members attending state colleges or universities. Guard members attending private universities are eligible for scholarships equal to average state tuition at public institutions. If funds are not sufficient to meet full tuition for all eligible applicants, scholarship amounts are reduced and the institutions enrolling the scholarship recipient must make up the difference in the recipient's award amount. The program serves as both a recruitment and retention tool for the Guard and has proved to be an effective incentive for enlisting. Any unused balance of this item is transferred to the National Guard Scholarship Reserve Fund (Fund 5BM0) at the end of each fiscal year.

Source: General Revenue Fund Group: GRF

Legal Basis: Discontinued line item

Purpose: This line item supported the State Share of Instruction (SSI) subsidies to state-assisted colleges and universities to help offset the operating costs of teaching students. This line item received federal stimulus funding from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) in FY 2010 and FY 2011. GRF line item 235501, State Share of Instruction, continues to provide primary funding for SSI.

Source: General Revenue Fund Group: GRF

Legal Basis: Article VIII Section 2n of the Ohio Constitution; ORC 151.01 and 154.04; Section 363.10 of Am. Sub. H.B. 59 of the 130th G.A.

Purpose: This line item provides debt service payments to retire general obligation bonds issued for state-assisted colleges and universities. A 1999 constitutional amendment authorized the state to issue general obligation bonds for the purpose of financing capital needs of state-assisted colleges and universities. In contrast with special revenue bonds, which are paid by a dedicated revenue source, general obligation bonds are backed by the full faith and credit of the state. Because of this additional backing, general obligation bonds can generally be issued at lower interest rates than special revenue bonds. Since 2000, the state has issued only general obligation bonds for capital needs of state-assisted colleges and universities.
