Note: The state fiscal year is July 1 through June 30. For example, FY 2010 is July 1, 2009 – June 30, 2010.

- The bill adds a fourth income tax check-off for contributions to the American Red Cross Ohio Disaster Response Readiness and Preparedness Fund, created by the bill.
- Costs to the Department of Taxation to administer the income tax check-off system, up to 2.5% of contributions, would be paid from the Income Tax Contribution Administration Fund. One-fourth of these administrative costs would be transferred to that fund from each of the four funds receiving contributions.
- Amounts that would be contributed to the new fund are uncertain. The three current funds each raised between about $300,000 and $670,000 annually in the most recent three years.
- The Executive Director of the State Emergency Management Agency would make grants for disaster preparedness and response from contributions to the new fund, and would report to the General Assembly on the effectiveness of this program.
- The bill changes the name of the Litter Control and Natural Resource Tax Administration Fund to the Income Tax Contribution Administration Fund.

Local Fiscal Highlights

- No direct fiscal effect on political subdivisions.

Detailed Fiscal Analysis

S.B. 147 adds a new income tax check-off, starting in tax year 2011, for contributions to the American Red Cross Ohio Disaster Response Readiness and Preparedness Fund, created by the bill. Contributions may also be made directly to the fund, independently of the income tax contribution system. Grants from the fund would be used by American Red Cross chapters in Ohio for disaster preparedness and response.

The income tax check-off for the American Red Cross Ohio Disaster Response Readiness and Preparedness Fund would become the fourth check-off on the state's personal income tax. These contributions do not reduce state or school district income taxes owed, but are made from taxpayers' refunds and, for the new fund, from contributions made directly to it. One-fourth of the costs to the Department of Taxation to administer the income tax check-off system, up to 2.5% of total contributions, would be transferred from each of the four funds to the Income Tax Contribution Administration Fund (Fund 4370).

Current funds in the income tax check-off system raised the following amounts in the most recent three years for which records are posted on the Department of Taxation's web site:

Contributions from Current Income Tax Refunds
	Nongame and Endangered Wildlife Fund		Natural Areas and Preserves Fund		Military Injury Relief Fund
Tax Year	Number of Returns	Amount	Number of Returns	Amount	Number of Returns	Amount	Total Amount
2007	37,838	$320,925	42,540	$383,937	40,418	$555,418	$1,260,280
2008	44,236	$417,489	41,561	$351,973	44,216	$670,513	$1,439,975
2009	32,252	$301,335	34,395	$332,200	34,308	$488,918	$1,122,453

Whether the new fund established by the bill would raise more or less than the amounts raised for funds in the current check-off system is uncertain. Fewer than 1% of returns include contributions to any one of the funds in the current system, with contributions on average of $8 to $15.

The Executive Director of the State Emergency Management Agency is responsible for making grants to the American Red Cross Greater Columbus Chapter from the new fund, for use by American Red Cross chapters in Ohio for planning, for disaster preparedness and response programs throughout Ohio, and for costs of administering those programs. Every two years, starting in January 2013, the Executive Director is to report to the General Assembly on the effectiveness of the income tax contribution system as it pertains to the new fund, revenues to the fund, and the purposes for which the money was spent. The Executive Director's costs for grant-making and preparation of a report would be paid out of the Emergency Management Agency Service and Reimbursement Fund.

The bill changes the name of the Litter Control and Natural Resource Tax Administration Fund to the Income Tax Contribution Administration Fund. The new name reflects the current function of the fund. It changes the name of the income tax refund contribution system to the income tax contribution system. This new name reflects the provision in the bill allowing a taxpayer not only to contribute part of the taxpayer's refund to the new fund, as is the case with the three funds currently part of this system, but also to increase any payment accompanying the return to cover not only the required amount but also a contribution. In addition, any person may contribute directly to the fund.
