

Executive

As Passed by the House

As Reported by Senate Finance

SOSCD1 Political Publications and Advertisements by Campaign Committees

No provision.

No provision.

R.C. 3517.20

Eliminates the requirement that a campaign committee include the name and address of its chairperson, treasurer, or secretary in printed political communications and public political advertisements; requires instead that the campaign committee include just its name in these advertisements.