STATE AGENCY FEES

State agencies charge a variety of fees.¹ A fee, in the context of this memorandum, is "a charge or payment for professional services," "a sum paid or charged for a privilege," or "a charge allowed by law for the service of a public office."²

This memorandum catalogs the fees charged by state agencies. For each agency, there is a description of the agency's functions followed by a table listing the fees. The table gives the purpose of each fee, the amount of the fee, and citations to the Ohio Revised Code and Administrative Code sections that authorize the fee. The table also indicates whether the fee is recurring³ and whether, and under what circumstances, the agency may raise the fee.⁴

¹ For purposes of this memorandum, "agency" includes a department, board, commission, or any other entity of state government that charges fees.

² Random House Unabridged Dictionary (2006), available at: <http://dictionary.reference.com/search?q=fee>. A fee may be called a charge, assessment, premium, cost, forfeiture, or other name, depending on the nature of the agency. Examples of fees are professional license fees, program fees, administrative fees, inspection fees, permit fees, and health services co-payments. In some cases a fee is paid to a county or local government and all or part is forwarded to the state. "Fee" does not include a fine or other amount paid as a penalty.

³ If the fee is charged only once, it is listed as "one time." "Annual," "biennial," "triennial," "quadrennial," and "quinquennial" indicate the frequency of recurring fees. "As needed" indicates that the fee is charged each time the agency provides the indicated service or assistance.

⁴ In some cases agencies are authorized by statute to raise fees. In others, Controlling Board approval is required.

Accountancy Board

The Accountancy Board regulates and licenses certified public accountants, public accountants, and public accounting firms. The Board may raise its fees with Controlling Board approval, but not more than 50% above the statutory amounts. The certified public accountant (CPA) and public accountant (PA) permit and registration fees noted below are the maximum the Board may assess by statute, although the Board currently charges less than that maximum, $135 for permits and $40 for renewals. The Board is authorized to charge a CPA certificate fee adequate to cover its expenses and it charges $100. The Board may charge a reasonable fee for CPA and PA examinations and rescheduling fees, though the Board currently uses an examination vendor that assesses those fees. The Board may charge a fee to cover costs of its peer reviewing functions. The Board has designated the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants to administer its peer review program. The Society is authorized to charge a fee to cover its costs, but the Board must approve the fee. The Board is authorized to charge a fee to register a public accountant whose application was filed prior to April 16, 1993, although it is unlikely any such applications have not been subsequently handled.

Adjutant General

Organized in 1803, the Adjutant General's Department provides administration, oversight, and command control of the Ohio organized militia, which consists of the Army National Guard, Air National Guard, Ohio Military Reserve, and Ohio Naval Militia. The Adjutant General is responsible for maintaining the combat readiness standard of the Ohio Army and Air National Guard in accordance with their national defense mission. The Adjutant General also applies Ohio National Guard assets at the discretion of the Governor to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, and assist the state in recovering from manmade or natural disasters as part of the Guard's state mission. The Adjutant General is custodian of all military equipment owned by or issued to the state. Camp Perry, located on the shores of Lake Erie near Port Clinton, provides training facilities for Ohio National Guard units and lodging facilities for visitors to Ohio's northern shores.

Department of Administrative Services

The Department of Administrative Services (DAS) provides services to state agencies pertaining to personnel and collective bargaining, real estate, information systems, and the procurement of goods and services. Some services are provided to local governments, but the fees charged by DAS are primarily to other state agencies. DAS provides centralized contracting and procurement services for state agencies as well as local governments.

The Office of Information Technology (OIT) provides information technology shared services and infrastructure for Ohio agencies as well as local governments. OIT charges fees primarily to state agencies and the fees are subject to change.

DAS, as part of its payroll services, charges the individual state agencies for their workers' compensation contributions. These amounts will vary based on payroll and the agency's experience rating. FY 2007 amounts may be obtained online from the Department's web site.

DAS administers and sets fees for health plans for state employees. For FY 2007, there were six plans offering single and family coverage. The amount of these fees will vary depending on the percentages paid by the state and the choices of state employees.

Commission on African-American Males

The Commission on African-American Males oversees and conducts research to determine the nature of problems concerning African-American males in four areas: employment, criminal justice, education, and health. In addition the Commission conducts community education and public awareness programs designed for African-American males and holds public hearings. The Commission consists of 41 members, including the directors (or their designees) of 14 state agencies, 5 members of the General Assembly, and 22 Ohioans appointed by the Governor. The Commission does not charge any fees.

Joint Committee on Agency Rule Review

The Joint Committee on Agency Rule Review (JCARR) is a legislative committee that reviews rules proposed by administrative and executive agencies and, under certain conditions, can recommend that the General Assembly invalidate a proposed rule. JCARR does not charge any fees.

Department of Aging

The Ohio Department of Aging is the primary state agency serving and advocating for the needs of Ohioans age 60 and older and is the administrator of the Pre-Admission Screening System Providing Options and Resources Today (PASSPORT), Residential State Supplement (RSS), Alzheimer's Respite Care, Long-term Care Ombudsman, and Golden Buckeye Card programs.

The main appropriations bill enacted by the 125th General Assembly (Am. Sub. H.B. 95) increased, from $3 to $6, the annual fee per bed the Department is required to collect from certain long-term care facilities for purposes of supporting the regional long-term care ombudsperson programs the Department administers.

The main appropriations bill enacted by the 126th General Assembly (Am. Sub. H.B. 66) established a penalty, equal to two times the original invoiced bed fee amount, applicable to facilities that fail to pay the bed fee within 90 days after the deadline established by the Department (currently, 30 from the date the billing statement was sent to the facility).

Am. Sub. H.B. 66 of the 126th General Assembly also permits the Department to charge nursing homes and residential care facilities an annual fee for the conduct of the customer satisfaction surveys the Department must use to publish an annual long-term care consumer guide. The consumer guide fee cannot exceed $400 for a nursing home and $300 for a residential care facility. A consumer guide fee paid by a nursing home that participates in the Medicaid Program must be reimbursed by Medicaid.

Department of Agriculture

The Department of Agriculture is responsible for administering and enforcing state laws governing agricultural activities. The Department also oversees county and independent fairs and helps ensure that amusement rides are safe. Additionally, the Department is the custodian of the primary weights and measures standards in Ohio and helps create marketing opportunities for Ohio farmers and food processors.

The Concentrated Animal Feeding Facilities Law authorizes the Department to issue National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permits under specified circumstances. However, the Department cannot begin issuance of NPDES permits until the United States Environmental Protection Agency approves the transfer of permitting authority from the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency to the Department. Additionally, the Director of Agriculture must annually review the debits of and credits to the Agricultural Commodity Depositors Fund and must make adjustments in the applicable fee that are necessary to maintain the Fund within specified limits. Finally, if the Director has not entered into an agreement with the United States Department of Agriculture for meat grading and certification service, he must establish and maintain a State Acceptance Service for that purpose. If the Director decides to establish a Service, he must adopt and enforce rules necessary for its implementation, administration, and enforcement, including rules establishing fees to be charged.

Ohio Air Quality Development Authority

The Ohio Air Quality Development Authority (OAQDA) provides financing for air quality projects in order to prevent or abate air pollution. It may do all of the following: issue air quality revenue bonds, notes, and refunding bonds; make loans and grants to governmental entities for the acquisition and construction of air quality facilities; make loans for air quality projects for private industry and public utility companies; acquire, construct, and operate air quality facilities; and engage in research and development with respect to air quality facilities. OAQDA charges an administrative fee for assistance with qualifying an entity's air quality facility for tax-exempt status. The amount of the fee is based on the principal monetary amount of the project and is established in a resolution adopted by OAQDA pursuant to statute. For projects that are not exempt from federal taxation, the fees are reduced by 50%.

Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services

The Ohio Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services (ODADAS) develops and distributes state and federal funds for educational and research programs to aid in the prevention and intervention of addiction to alcohol and other drugs and treatment programs for persons who abuse alcohol and drugs.

ODADAS is authorized to charge the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction (DRC) and the Department of Youth Services (DYS) a "reasonable annual fee" for the expenses it incurs in preparing and offering education and training programs to DRC and DYS employees. ODADAS' chief fiscal officer reports that ODADAS does not charge this annual fee but instead, charges each participant in some training sessions and conferences the agency administers a fee to cover program expenses, regardless of the participant's employer.

While ODADAS does not charge the liquor permit fee or the motor vehicle license reinstatement fee, ODADAS receives a portion of these fees that are charged by the Department of Commerce's Division of Liquor Control and the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, respectively, to administer alcohol and drug addiction and drivers' intervention programs.

Prior to June 13, 2004, ODADAS was responsible for certifying or credentialing chemical dependency counselors and other alcohol and drug prevention specialists. In connection with this responsibility, ODADAS was required to adopt application and renewal fees for counselors and specialists that did not exceed the cost it incurred in implementing and administering the certification or credentialing process. Responsibility for licensure and certification of chemical dependency counselors, chemical dependency counselor assistants, and prevention specialists transferred to the Chemical Dependency Professionals Board on June 13, 2004. Consequently, ODADAS no longer charges fees for certification or credentialing of chemical dependency counselors or other alcohol and drug prevention specialists.

Ohio State Barber Board

The Ohio State Barber Board regulates and licenses barbers, barber schools, and barber shops. The Board is authorized to charge fees for licensure, examination, and renewal, and may charge other fees. The Board may raise its fees with Controlling Board approval, but not more than 50% above the statutory amounts. If a barber license or a barber teacher's license has expired, the holder of an expired license must pay a fee to restore the license, plus an additional fee for each lapsed year. The fee is $100 to restore an expired license, plus $75 for each lapsed year, not to exceed a total of $690. H.B. 95 of the 125th General Assembly revised the law governing fees for the Board, but as of July 10, 2006, the Board's rules had not been updated to reflect the changes.

Office of Budget and Management

The Office of Budget and Management (OBM) is a cabinet-level agency within the executive branch that coordinates, develops, and monitors agency operating and capital budgets, and reviews, processes, and reports financial transactions made by state agencies. Although OBM has authority to charge a fee to persons wanting a copy of the public notice of OBM rulemaking proceedings, the agency does not charge the fee. Additionally, the amount of the user charge imposed on agencies for accounting and budgeting services is based on a percentage of each agency's gross payroll each pay period.

Ohio Building Authority

The Ohio Building Authority consists of five individuals appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The powers and duties of the Authority include acquiring, constructing, equipping, improving, maintaining, and operating capital facilities for housing state agencies and their functions. The Authority is also permitted to issue special obligations bonds to finance the costs of these capital facilities. The Authority charges no fees. (R.C. Chapter 152.)

Capitol Square Review and Advisory Board

The Capitol Square Review and Advisory Board (CSR) manages the maintenance, operations, and security of the Capitol Square buildings and grounds, and grants permits for public activities occurring on the State House property. The Board also operates the underground parking garage, the State House Education and Visitors Center, the State House Museum Shop, and the Ohio Government Telecommunications Studio.

Civil Rights Commission

The Civil Rights Commission primarily receives, investigates, and determines written charges of unlawful discriminatory practices. It issues complaints, conducts hearings, and has subpoena power. The Commission's final orders are subject to judicial review. It may obtain a court order for the enforcement of its final orders. The Commission may refer certain matters to the Attorney General for commencement of a civil action in court. The Commission also has a comprehensive educational program designed to eliminate prejudice. All amounts received by the Commission, and all amounts awarded to it by a court, for attorney's fees, court costs, expert witness fees, and other litigation expenses are paid into the Civil Rights Commission General Reimbursement Fund. All amounts received by the Commission for copies of its documents and for other goods and services furnished by it are also paid into that Fund. These other goods and services are furnishing copies generally of documents pertaining to cases before the Commission, for which the current charge is $ 0.05 per page. The Commission no longer has a relationship with the Commission on African-American Males as provided by R.C. 4112.12.

Department of Commerce

The Department of Commerce is a multi-functional regulatory agency that emphasizes economic development, public safety, and customer service. Commerce is authorized to charge various types of fees and assessments, such as fees for examination, investigation, licensure, and license renewal. Commerce is organized into the following eight operating divisions and one administrative division: Financial Institutions, Industrial Compliance, Liquor Control, Real Estate and Professional Licensing, Securities, State Fire Marshal, Unclaimed Funds, Administration, and Labor and Worker Safety. Often times the Revised Code gives Commerce the authority to adopt certain fees or assessments by rule. These rules must be adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. Commerce may charge not more than $50 to renew a license after it has been suspended due to default on child support.

Some divisions in Commerce have the authority to charge an applicant the same fee the division had to pay the Superintendent of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation and Identification for background checks performed for those applicants. According to the Department of Commerce, they do not charge a fee for approval of continuing education courses for pawnbrokers. The designation listed after each liquor permit is the title of the liquor permit.

State Board of Cosmetology

The State Board of Cosmetology licenses and regulates cosmetologists, estheticians, hair designers, manicurists, natural hair stylists, independent contractors, beauty salons, tanning salons, instructors, and cosmetology schools. The Board may raise its statutorily set fees with Controlling Board approval, but not more than 50% above the statutory amounts. The Board has exercised this authority, charging between $10 and $15 more for most licenses and renewals. Fees the Board has increased are marked with an asterisk. The Board must grant independent contractor licenses to cosmetologists who meet certain requirements. The law does not specify an amount for these fees, but instead authorizes the Board to charge an "applicable fee." The Board charges $75 for an initial independent contractor license and $60 for a renewal.

Counselor, Social Worker, and Marriage and Family Therapist Board

The Counselor, Social Worker, and Marriage and Family Therapist Board regulates the professions of counseling, social work, and marriage and family therapy by establishing licensure and practice standards. The Board administers examinations, reviews academic credentials, and evaluates supervised training experiences.

The fees allowed to be charged by the Board for examinations, although not currently charged by the Board, must be sufficient to cover the direct expenses incurred in examining applicants for licensure. The licensing fees are nonrefundable and must be sufficient to cover the necessary expenses of the Board that are not expenses incurred for examinations of licensees. The fees for each license may be different. None of the fees for licenses can exceed $125 each, unless the Board determines that a higher amount is needed to cover necessary expenses and the Controlling Board approves the higher amount.

Court of Claims

Revised Code section 2743.03 creates the Court of Claims. The Court of Claims is a court of record and has exclusive, original jurisdiction of all civil actions against the state permitted by the state's waiver of immunity, exclusive jurisdiction of the causes of action of all parties in civil actions that are removed to the Court of Claims, and jurisdiction to hear appeals from the Court of Claims commissioners. A Court of Claims panel of commissioners also hears and determines all matters relating to appeals from decisions of the Attorney General regarding the Victims of Crime Fund. The Victims of Crime Fund is used to pay the compensation of the Court of Claims commissioners, judges of the Court of Claims, and necessary personnel and other administrative expenses of hearing and determining appeals. The Director of Budget and Management annually transfers funds from the Reparations Fund to the Victims of Crime Fund to pay those costs.

Ohio Cultural Facilities Commission

The Commission does not operate facilities, but provides funding oversight for state capital improvement funds appropriated by the General Assembly. Most of the facilities are locally owned. The facilities are operated by local governments or nonprofit organizations under the terms of management or cooperative agreements with the Commission for the term of the state bonds used to finance the capital improvements. Rental or usage fees are collected by and used by the local entities for facility operation and maintenance.

The Commission is also responsible for the theaters in the Riffe Center, and those operations are carried out under a contract with a nonprofit performing arts organization, CAPA. State agencies are permitted to use the Riffe theaters rent-free. In order to cover costs of the Riffe Theatre operations, CAPA collects rents and fees from nonstate entities that use the Riffe Theatres. A small portion of those fees is transferred to the Commission and placed in an escrow fund for repair and replacement of the Riffe Theatres' theatrical equipment.

The mission of the Ohio Cultural Facilities Commission is to evaluate the need for Ohio cultural and sports facilities and administer their planning, design, construction, and operations through cooperation with local nonprofit project sponsors and the appropriate state agencies. Cultural facilities include facilities for performing and visual arts, science-technology centers, museums related to transportation, local historical facilities, and state historical facilities. Sports facilities include publicly owned venues for major and minor league professional sports and for motor sports events.

State Dental Board

The State Dental Board establishes standards for the safe practice of dentistry and dental hygiene by licensing persons who practice dentistry and dental hygiene, investigating alleged violations of the Dental Licensing Law, and conducting disciplinary proceedings. The Board may charge fees for licensure, examination, and renewal, and may charge other fees. The Board is authorized to raise its fees with Controlling Board approval, but not more than 50% above the statutory amounts.

Board of Deposit

The Ohio State Board of Deposit is the entity that designates the depositories of state money and regulates the deposits of state money into depository institutions. The Board also is required to implement the Uniform Depository Act. The Board consists of the Treasurer of State, the Auditor of State, and the Attorney General or these three officers' designee. The Board does not charge any fees.

Department of Development

The Department of Development administers, develops, and promotes plans and programs that are designed to foster economic growth and to improve the economic well being of Ohio's citizens. The Department is charged with the responsibility of ensuring that state resources are efficiently used, economic growth is properly balanced, community growth is developed in an orderly manner, and local governments are coordinated with one another for the purpose of promoting economic growth and prosperity in Ohio. The Department charges various application, filing, processing, and servicing fees in connection with the programs it administers. The Department also administers the Energy Efficiency Loan Program created under the Electric Restructuring Law.

Commission on Dispute Resolution and Conflict Management

The Commission on Dispute Resolution and Conflict Management provides, coordinates, funds, and evaluates dispute resolution and conflict management education, training, and research programs, and consults with, educates, trains, provides resources for, and assists and facilitates other persons and public or private agencies, organizations, or entities engaged in activities related to dispute resolution and conflict management. It provides technical aid and assistance to dispute resolution and conflict management programs and program providers, conducts programs to train and educate mediators, develops programs and curricula for public and private education, and enters into contracts for its services. The Commission charges fees to cover the costs of printing, producing, and mailing some publications, videos, and CD-ROMs used as resource materials. Most publications are available at no cost through the Commission's web site. OAC 179-1-02, which requires the payment by a requestor of the costs of copying and mailing the notice of meetings, has not been used because no such requests have been made.

Department of Education

The Department of Education oversees the public education system of school districts and community (charter) schools. It also monitors other entities, such as early learning programs, nonpublic schools, and regional providers of educational services. The Department is governed by the State Board of Education. In accordance with rules of the State Board, the Department licenses teachers, administrators, treasurers, superintendents, and other education personnel. Other responsibilities of the Department include administering the school funding system, collecting school fiscal and performance data, developing academic standards and model curricula, administering the state achievement tests, issuing district and school report cards, administering Ohio's voucher programs, and providing professional development.

Elections Commission

The Elections Commission is generally charged with the enforcement of the Campaign Finance Law. It conducts hearings regarding alleged violations of that law, imposes fines for violations, and issues advisory opinions in response to campaign finance questions. The Commission is funded partially through fees paid by candidates for state and local offices and by committees who place questions or issues on the ballot. The fees are paid at the time the person becomes a candidate or the committee places a question or issue on the ballot. The officer who receives the fee must immediately pay it to the credit of the Ohio Elections Commission Fund in the state treasury.

State Board of Engineers and Surveyors

The State Board of Engineers and Surveyors regulates and licenses professional engineers and surveyors in Ohio. Ohio law requires the Board to charge enough for the application and registration to cover the expenses of processing them. Currently, the Board reports charging $25 for an engineer or surveyor application, and $30 for subsequent registration. The Board is authorized to license engineers and surveyors who are already licensed in another state, and charge a fee for their application and registration. The Board reports charging $415 for reciprocity for engineers, $455 for reciprocity for surveyors, and $450 for reciprocity for National Council of Examiners for Engineering and Surveying (NCEES) model law engineers. The Board may raise its fees, except for fees the Board is required to establish at amounts "adequate" to cover designated expenses, with Controlling Board approval, but not more than 50% above the statutory amounts.

Environmental Protection Agency

The Environmental Protection Agency is charged with protecting Ohio's environment. The Agency accomplishes that through the administration of specific programs within broad areas of concern with respect to environmental protection. The Agency enforces standards for air and water quality, wastewater treatment, and the disposal of construction and demolition debris and solid, hazardous, and infectious waste. It also requires toxic release inventories and administers a risk management program. The Agency's mission is carried out through inspections and sampling; permitting; environmental education and technical assistance provided to industry, local communities, and the general public; assistance with compliance and pollution prevention; and enforcement actions against violators. Loan assistance is also provided for environmental infrastructure such as sewage treatment plants.

Environmental Review Appeals Commission

The Environmental Review Appeals Commission (ERAC) is an appellate review commission, which is separate and distinct from the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency. ERAC hears appeals concerning actions taken by the Director of Environmental Protection, county or local boards of health, the State Fire Marshall's office, State Emergency Response Commission, and the Ohio Department of Agriculture under Ohio's environmental laws. Any person who was a party to a proceeding before an agency or board of health may participate in an appeal to ERAC for an order vacating or modifying the action of the Director or board. ERAC has only limited authority to charge fees. Specifically, it may charge filing fees and fees for providing notice of Commission meetings.

Ohio Ethics Commission

The Ohio Ethics Commission administers, interprets, and enforces ethical conduct in government under the Ohio Ethics Laws.

For any public official who is appointed to a nonelective office of the state and for any employee who holds a nonelective position in a public agency of the state, the state agency that is the primary employer of the state official or employee must pay the financial disclosure statement filing fee.

The Ohio Ethics Commission must deposit the financial disclosure statement filing fees that it receives into the Ohio Ethics Commission Fund in the state treasury.

The Governor's office oversees the operations of state government and all the state agencies under the Governor's jurisdiction. The Governor's office does not charge fees.

Department of Health

The Ohio Department of Health regulates certain health care facilities, including nursing homes and other adult care facilities and oversees programs that promote public health. The Department is charged with approving plans for water systems, regulating asbestos training programs, overseeing aspects of the food service industry, and other duties. It operates a testing laboratory that provides testing services on water samples, human specimens, and other samples. The Department also licenses nursing home administrators, hearing aid dealers and fitters, and radiographic professionals. The Department works with 137 local health districts, governed by locally appointed officials, to provide public health services. The Public Health Council is the primary rulemaking entity within the Department.

Higher Education Facilities Commission

The Ohio Higher Education Facilities Commission assists nonpublic not-for-profit colleges and universities to acquire facilities. The Commission issues tax-exempt state revenue bonds to pay the cost of constructing or renovating an institution's facility, and the institution makes payments to retire those bonds. The Commission is authorized to collect fees from the institutions that participate in its program. While it is authorized to hire employees, the Commission currently engages only the services of outside bond counsel and the Board of Regents. The Commission funds its entire operations from application and issuance fees and does not receive any amount from the General Revenue Fund.⁷³

⁷³ The sum of the application and issuance fees must be not less than $1,000 or more than $3,000.

Commission on Hispanic-Latino Affairs

The Ohio Commission on Hispanic-Latino Affairs serves as a liaison between state government and the Hispanic-Latino community in Ohio. It advocates for the development and implementation of policies and programs to address the needs of Hispanic-Latino Ohioans, in particular, education, employment, economic development, health, and housing. The Commission is governed by an 11-member board appointed by the Governor. The Commission does not charge any fees.

Ohio Historical Society

The Ohio Historical Society is a chartered, private nonprofit corporation that receives state subsidies for performing certain functions prescribed by law. The Society was chartered "to promote a knowledge of history and archeology, especially for Ohio." A 34-member board of trustees (21 voting and 13 nonvoting ex officio members) governs the Society. The Revised Code mandates many Society functions, including administering a state historical museum and maintaining it for public use; collecting, preserving, and making available manuscripts, print collections, and historical objects and artifacts pertaining to the history of Ohio; and preserving the state archives. To comply with these mandates, the Society oversees the operations and maintenance of historical, archeological, and natural history sites and museums throughout the state.

Ohio House of Representatives

The House of Representatives is the lower chamber of the Ohio General Assembly, whose members serve two-year terms. The House of Representatives does not charge any fees.

Industrial Commission

The Industrial Commission works with the Bureau of Worker's Compensation to administer Ohio's worker's compensation system. The Industrial Commission is responsible for providing a forum for fair and impartial claims resolution, conducting hearings on disputed claims, adjudicating claims involving an employer's violation of specific safety requirements, and determining eligibility for Permanent Total Disability benefits.

Inspector General

The Office of Inspector General (IG) investigates fraud, waste, abuse, and corruption within the executive branch of state government. Complaints received by the Office are reviewed and evaluated to determine whether there is reasonable cause to believe the underlying allegations, if true, would constitute a "wrongful act or omission" on the part of a state officer, agency, or employee. At the conclusion of an investigation by the IG, a report of investigation is completed and provided to the Governor and the agency subject to investigation. The report may include recommendations. When appropriate, a report of investigation also may be forwarded to a prosecutor for review to determine whether the underlying facts give rise to a criminal prosecution.

Department of Insurance

The Department of Insurance regulates insurance agents, insurance companies, health insuring corporations (HICs), and insurance products. The Department does not have authority to increase fees specified by statute, however, it does have general authority to set fees for authorized transactions and services wherever specific fees are not enumerated by law. All Department of Insurance rules must be promulgated under the Administrative Procedure Act. The Department has discretion to conduct market examinations and licensee examinations on a periodic basis when the Superintendent determines such an examination is warranted. The licensee must pay the expenses of these examinations, sometimes including the hiring of outside consultants. Ohio law establishes several reinsurance and guaranty associations. These associations may charge assessments to their member insurers in the event of an insurer's insolvency. Reinsurance programs may assess their members on a periodic or sometimes annual basis to cover the costs to administer the programs. For these organizations, the actual amount assessed can vary widely and the total may be capped.

Department of Job and Family Services

The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) develops and oversees programs that provide health care, employment and economic assistance, child support enforcement, and services to families and children. Many ODJFS programs receive federal funds and must comply with federal mandates. ODJFS oversees Ohio's Medicaid program, the Ohio's Best Rx prescription drug program, the Temporary Aid for Needy Families (TANF) program, the Hospital Care Assurance Program, and many other public assistance programs. ODJFS also regulates and licenses child day-care centers⁷⁴ and type A family day-care homes,⁷⁵ as well as regulating and registering child day camps.

ODJFS also administers the state's portion of the unemployment insurance program. Funds for administration of the state's program are provided primarily by the U.S. Department of Labor (USDOL) from revenues collected from employers by the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA). If an employer is making contributions into a state unemployment compensation system approved by USDOL, the employer receives almost a 90% tax credit on the employer's federal unemployment tax. Benefits are paid through the Unemployment Trust Fund, which is funded through state insurance taxes that are paid by employers and collected by ODJFS. Under the Unemployment Compensation Law (R.C. Chapter 4141.), an employer may be either a reimbursing employer or a contributing employer. Reimbursing employers generally include nonprofit organizations that have elected to be reimbursing employers and most public employers. Reimbursing employers are billed once a month, after the fact, for the amount of benefits paid in that month to the employer's former employees. Contributory employers pay contributions to the Unemployment Trust Fund four times a year. The Director of Job and Family Services uses an experience rating system to determine the amount of a contributory employer's contribution. A contributory employer pays at an experience rate based upon the employer's payroll and account balance in the Fund.

⁸⁴ Each health insuring corporation servicing Medicaid recipients is required to pay a franchise permit fee to the Department. The fee is equal to 4.5% of the managed care premiums received by the health insuring corporation for the previous quarter. The Department may lower the fee, or raise it to no more than 6%.

Ohio Judicial Conference

The OJC is an organization of judges who join on a voluntary basis to study courts, make recommendations for improvement, report on the fiscal impact of legislation affecting courts, and offer continuing education. There is no explicit authority to charges dues, but the authority may be implied by the fact that membership is voluntary. There is no explicit authority to offer continuing education programs or to charge program fees, but R.C. 105.97 refers to "the requisite fees associated with the program or course." The OJC calculates program fees by dividing the total cost by the anticipated number of attendees. The major (and possibly only) program is the annual meeting.

⁸⁵ The assessment is based on each hospital's total facility costs and the rate is established by the Department (R.C. 5112.06).

⁸⁶ The Department is authorized to adjust the fee based on the number of facility beds without adopting rules, but must also adjust the rate in accordance with standards adopted in rule.

Ohio Lake Erie Commission

The Lake Erie Commission is responsible for coordinating state policies and programs that are related to Lake Erie and its surrounding areas. The Commission's role is to preserve and protect Lake Erie's natural resources, protect and restore the quality of its waters and ecosystem, and promote economic development of Ohio's North Coast. Staff members advise the Governor and the Commission on the development, coordination, and implementation of Lake Erie programs; represent Ohio in regional, national, and international forums relating to the Great Lakes; assist the Coastal Zone Management program; facilitate compliance with the Great Lakes Water Quality Agreement and Great Lakes Toxic Substances Control Agreement; and manage the distribution of funds from the Lake Erie Protection Fund. With respect to the latter fund, the Commission sets the fee for "Lake Erie license plates" that the Registrar of Motor Vehicles and deputy registrars collect.

Legal Rights Service

Revised Code section 5123.60 created the Ohio Legal Rights Service (OLRS) in 1975 as Ohio's federally mandated protection and advocacy agency. OLRS provides protection and advocacy services to individuals with a developmental disability, mental illness, or other significant physical or mental impairment that substantially interferes with life activity. OLRS responds to allegations of abuse, neglect, and rights violations and advocates for access to appropriate education, health care, housing, employment, and institutional reform for individuals with disabilities. OLRS provides legal representation, information and referral, professional assistance, negotiation and mediation, education, and training. No fees charged by this agency could be found.

Joint Legislative Ethics Committee

The Joint Legislative Ethics Committee's (JLEC) primary functions include: (1) monitoring ethics compliance, investigating complaints, and imposing sanctions as appropriate, (2) administering mandatory lobbyist registrations and filings, and (3) handling annual legislative financial disclosure statement filings.

JLEC is the "appropriate ethics commission" for matters relating to members of the General Assembly, employees of the General Assembly, employees of the Legislative Service Commission, and candidates for the office of member of the General Assembly. Therefore, it is responsible for sending notice to those persons over which it has jurisdiction of the requirement to file a financial disclosure statement. JLEC must deposit the fees it receives into the General Revenue Fund.

The Revised Code and Administrative Code require different amounts for initial registration statements for legislative agents, executive agency lobbyists, and their employers; this table uses the amount required by the Revised Code.

Liquor Control Commission

The Liquor Control Commission is the rule-making and adjudication agency that oversees the alcohol beverage industry in Ohio. Its mission is to ensure compliance with Ohio's liquor laws and regulations. The Commission works jointly with the Division of Liquor Control in the Department of Commerce. The Commission's activities include: (1) making and interpreting rules regarding liquor production, sales, advertising, etc., (2) hearing and ruling on cases regarding violations of liquor laws that could result in the suspension or revocation of a liquor permit, (3) hearing and ruling on appeals of decisions of the Division of Liquor Control concerning liquor permit renewals and distribution, and (4) hearing and ruling on appeals of liquor permit revocations and of permit nonrenewals due to tax delinquency.

Manufactured Homes Commission

The Ohio Manufactured Home Commission regulates manufactured housing installers, the installation of manufactured housing, and manufactured housing foundations and support systems. The Commission is also empowered to review the design of and plans for manufactured housing installation, foundations, and support systems and to inspect a sample of homes at a percentage the Commission determines to evaluate the construction and installation of manufactured housing, foundations, and support systems to assume compliance with adopted standards.

The Manufactured Homes Commission was created by S.B. 102 of the 125th General Assembly. However, section 4781.04(A)(1) of the Revised Code made the Commission dependent upon the development of model standards by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development that cover the installation of manufactured housing. These model standards have not materialized. Therefore, prior to H.B. 530 of the 126th General Assembly, the Commission was not able to begin its duties. H.B. 530 included statutory changes that allow the Commission to begin licensing prior to any federal action. The Commission expects to begin licensing activities by October 2006. As a result of this situation, the Commission does not currently charge any fees. However, sections 4781.04 (A)(7) and 4781.08(A)(1) of the Revised Code generally grant the Commission authority to establish fees for the issuance and renewal of licenses, for conducting inspections to determine an applicant's compliance with the law governing manufactured homes and the rules adopted pursuant to it, and for the Commission's expenses incurred in implementing the law; and 47891.10(B) establishes maximum fees for the administration of continuing education programs.

Medical Board

The duty of the State Medical Board is to protect and enhance the health and welfare of Ohio's citizens through effective medical regulation. The Board collects fees for the licensing and regulation of doctors of medicine (MDs), osteopathic medicine (DOs), and podiatric medicine (DPMs), physician assistants (PAs) acupuncturist, and anesthesiologist assistants. The Board also regulates the practitioners of the limited branches of medicine including massage therapists (MTs), cosmetic therapists (CTs), and mechanotherapists (DMs). Twenty dollars from the license renewal fee for MDs, DOs, DPMs, is transferred to the Ohio Department of Health for the Physician Loan Repayment Program; the Medical Board retains the $285 remaining. Training certificates for MDs, DOs, and DPMs may be renewed only five times. Fees for the certificate to prescribe for physician assistants are not currently collected as the Board is drafting Administrative Rules to implement this authority. R.C. 4731.12 and 4731.54 give the Board authority to charge a fee to cover the costs of examinations for MDs, DOs and DPMs, but the Board currently administers exams through a third party that collects and retains the fee. The Board may charge fees to cover the cost of copying and mailing rules procedure notices (O.A.C. 4731-2-01). The Board, with the approval of the Controlling Board, may establish fees in excess of the amounts provided for in R.C. Chapters 4731., 4760., and 4762., provided that the fees do not exceed the amounts permitted by these Chapters by more than 50%.

Ohio Medical Transportation Board

The Medical Transportation Board is the state supervisory body for private medical transportation service organizations (MTSOs). The rules of the Board differentiate between "MTOs" (identical to emergency MTSOs) and MoICUs (mobile intermediate care units), but their fees are the same. Nonemergency MTSOs operate ambulettes (for persons who require wheelchairs).

The statutes require the Board to establish inspection fees, but the rules distinguish between inspection and reinspection fees. The statutes do not explicitly mention "temporary" permits, but the rules provide for their issuance (for substitute MTSO vehicles when the regular ones are disabled). Rules establishing air ambulance fees have not yet been promulgated.

License and permit fees paid to the Board by an emergency MTSO that is licensed by and has its principal place of business in a municipality with standards that meet or exceed state standards are reduced by 50%.

Department of Mental Health

The Department of Mental Health regulates public and private psychiatric facilities. The Department is authorized to charge fees for certification, inspection, and licensing of these facilities. The Department collects fees to cover the cost of transcription and notification of public hearings (O.A.C. 5122-1-02). No Revised Code section explicitly provides that the Department has the authority to collect these fees. Fees for the licensing of a psychiatric service provider and certification of a community mental health agency are dependent on the number of patients served by the facility. O.A.C. 5122-30-04 cites R.C. section 5119.22 as authority to charge residential license fees, but that section does not mention fees.

Department of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities

The Department of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities regulates county departments of MR/DD and licenses facilities and individuals providing MR/DD services. The Department charges fees for the licensing, certification, and application of providers and provider employees. No statutory limits to fees are established. The following list excludes discretionary fees authorized by the Department but collected by the state's 88 county departments of MR/DD.

Board of Motor Vehicle Collision Repair Registration

The Board of Motor Vehicle Collision Repair Registration registers motor vehicle collision repair operators. A regular certificate or temporary certificate is required for each business location. The Board is authorized to raise or lower its registration fees with Controlling Board approval, but not by more than 50% of the statutory amount. If an operator fails to register, the initial fee becomes the initial fee then in effect plus the initial fee in effect for each calendar year that the operator was not registered after the Board notified or attempted to notify the operator. A temporary certificate may not be renewed more than four consecutive times. If a motor vehicle collision repair operator obtains a regular certificate prior to expiration of the operator's temporary certificate, a pro rata portion of the fee paid for the temporary fee is applied to the fee for the regular certificate.

Department of Natural Resources

The Department of Natural Resources is responsible for the preservation, conservation, and use of the state's natural resources. The Department manages more than 590,000 acres of land, including 74 state parks, 20 state forests, 123 state nature preserves, and 100 wildlife areas, and has jurisdiction over more than 124,000 acres of inland waters, 7,000 miles of streams, 481 miles of the Ohio River, and two and one-quarter million acres of Lake Erie.

The Department is composed of 12 operating divisions that encompass four broad areas of responsibility: resource management, economic development, recreation, and health and safety. Within those areas the divisions administer all of the following: licensing of hunting, fishing, and watercraft; operation of state parks; management of state forests; protection of designated scenic rivers, natural areas, and preserves; oversight and permitting of mining and oil and natural gas operations; provision of boating safety and related law enforcement; water resource management; provision of geological services; wildlife management and protection; and promotion of recycling and litter prevention.

Board of Nursing

The Board of Nursing consists of 13 members appointed by the Governor to promote and protect the health of Ohioans through the safe and effective practice of nursing. The Board regulates more than 185,000 individuals in the field of nursing. The Board also certifies 1,500 dialysis technicians. Additionally, the Board provides oversight for nursing education programs and continuing nurse education requirements. The Board also facilitates the administration of the national licensure examination for registered nurses (RN) and licensed practical nurses (LPN). The Board, subject to approval of the Controlling Board, may establish fees in excess of the amounts provided by R.C. 4723.08, provided that such fees do not exceed these amounts by more than 50%.

Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy & Athletic Trainers Board

The Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, and Athletic Trainers Board regulates the professions of occupational therapy, physical therapy, and athletic training to promote and protect the health of Ohio's citizens. The Board issues licenses to qualified applicants and renews licenses of existing practitioners. The Board also investigates complaints against licensees and unlicensed practitioners.

In several instances, the Board's rules allow it to charge more than it is currently charging for its services. For example, the rule allows the Board to charge up to $600 as an examination fee for a physical therapist or physical therapy assistant, however, the Board currently charges $120. The sections of the Board governing occupational therapists and athletic trainers are also authorized by statute to waive all or part of the licensing fees, if the license is issued less than 100 days from the day it expires.

Ohioana Library Association

The Ohioana Library Association maintains and preserves a permanent collection of books and music by Ohioans or about Ohio that consists of approximately 55,000 volumes, including books, sheet music, scrapbooks, and biographical files, and disseminates information about the work of Ohio writers, musicians, and other artists. These goals are accomplished through the Ohioana Collection, the Ohioana Quarterly and other educational resources, and the Ohioana Awards. The Association charges no fees.

Optical Dispensers Board

The Ohio Optical Dispensers Board regulates and licenses dispensing opticians, spectacle dispensing opticians, contact lens dispensing opticians, spectacle-contact lens dispensing opticians, and ocularists. The Board is authorized to raise examination and license renewal fees with Controlling Board approval, but not more than 50% above the statutory amounts. Currently, the Board relies on an independent organization to conduct the opticians' examinations; thus, while authorized to charge a fee, the Board does not charge for this examination.

Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Release Compensation Board

The Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Release Compensation Board administers the Ohio Financial Assurance Fund that provides a mechanism for petroleum underground storage tank owners and operators to meet the federal mandate of demonstrating financial responsibility of $1 million to pay for potential damages caused by releases from their tank. The fund assures reimbursement of up to $1 million, minus a deductible, for necessary corrective actions caused by accidental release of petroleum from the regulated tank.

State Board of Pharmacy

The State Board of Pharmacy is a nine-member panel responsible for licensure and drug law enforcement. In addition to the fees discussed below, the Board is authorized under R.C. 4729.82 and 4729.83 to charge reasonable fees for mailings, copying, and duplication of records. Section 4729.65 of the Revised Code authorized the Board, subject to the approval of the Controlling Board to establish fees in excess of the amounts provided in Chapter 4729., provided that such fees do not exceed the amounts permitted by the Chapter by more than 50%. This does not apply to fees required to be established by the Board at amounts "adequate" to cover designated expenses.

State Board of Psychology

The State Board of Psychology regulates and licenses psychologists and school psychologists for practice that occurs outside of school settings (the State Board of Education licenses school psychologists who practice in schools). The Psychology Board is authorized to charge fees for licensure, examination, and renewal, and may charge other fees. Although the Board is authorized to charge up to $150 for initial licensure, it currently charges $125. The Board is also authorized to raise its fees with Controlling Board approval, but not more than 50% above the statutory amounts. If a psychologist or school psychologist license has been suspended due to nonrenewal, the license can be reinstated on payment of the biennial license renewal fee that cannot exceed $350 (currently, $350) plus a penalty of $50. The Board waives the biennial renewal fee if a licensee is on active military duty.

Under law effective prior to 1977, the Board was authorized to license applicants licensed in other jurisdictions who neither held a doctoral degree nor submitted to the Board's examination. A foreign applicant granted licensure without examination was required to pay a fee ranging from $75 to $150. If such a person was denied licensure under this scheme, the person could reapply for licensure by taking the examination and paying a fee not to exceed $25. Although this law is now ineffective, it has not been repealed.

State Public Defender and Ohio Public Defender Commission

The Office of the State Public Defender (the SPD) is the agency on the state level that is responsible for providing legal representation and other services for persons who are accused of a crime or delinquent act under circumstances in which they are constitutionally entitled to legal representation, but who cannot afford to hire their own attorney (i.e., they are indigent). The SPD is overseen by the Ohio Public Defender Commission (the OPDC). In addition to the SPD, Ohio’s public defender system also provides for representation of indigent defendants at the local level by county public defenders, joint county public defenders, or county appointed counsel systems. R.C. Chapter 120. contains most of the statutes that govern the SPD, the OPDC, and representation of indigent defendants at the local level.

In specified circumstances, the SPD has the authority (and in some cases, the duty) to provide representation to: (1) indigent persons at trial, on appeal, or in post-conviction matters in criminal or delinquency cases; (2) persons incarcerated in a state facility who assert unlawful imprisonment or detention; and (3) persons in matters relating to revocation of parole, probation, or other types of release. In practice, the SPD primarily handles appeals and post-conviction matters in criminal cases, including death penalty cases. Other services the SPD provides include technical services, educational programs, and assistance to court-appointed attorneys. The SPD also supervises compliance of county and joint county public defender offices, and county appointed counsel systems, with standards adopted by the OPDC, and administers a program for making indigent defense reimbursement payments to counties for those offices and to court-appointed attorneys. Under the program, the SPD reimburses the counties for up to 50% of allowable costs in the cases.

In addition to the functions described above, the SPD, through the Ohio Legal Assistance Foundation it is required to establish, administers a program that provides financial assistance to legal aid societies that provide civil legal services to indigent persons. Funds used to provide the financial assistance come from a variety of sources, including the additional $11 and $26 filing fees in municipal court, county court, and court of common pleas civil actions described in the table below, and interest accrued on nondirected escrow funds or client funds deposited by title insurance agents, title insurance companies, attorneys, law firms, and legal professional associations in interest-bearing trust accounts under statutory mandates contained in R.C. 3953.231, 4705.09, and 4705.10 (the title insurance-related accounts are named IOTA accounts and the attorney-related accounts are named IOLTA accounts). The nondirected escrow account funds deposited into IOTA accounts and the client funds deposited into IOLTA accounts are those that are nominal in amount or are to be held by the agent, company, attorney, firm, or association for a short period of time. The account must pay a rate of interest that is not less than the rate paid by the depository institution to regular, non-IOTA/non-IOLTA depositors. All interest earned on funds in the account, less service charges, are deposited into the Legal Aid Fund. That Fund is used to provide the financial assistance under the program, provided that four and one-half percent of the moneys in the Fund are reserved for the costs of administering the program and its funding mechanisms and, if not used for those purposes, for other uses authorized for the Foundation. The IOTA and IOLTA account funding mechanisms do not involve the assessment of "fees" and, thus, they are not included in the table below. The Superintendent of Insurance is authorized to adopt rules regarding IOTA accounts and the Supreme Court is authorized to adopt and enforce rules regarding IOLTA accounts.

The OPDC is a nine-member board appointed by the Governor and the Supreme Court for the purpose of providing, supervising, and coordinating legal representation at state expense for indigent and other persons. At least five of the members must be practicing attorneys. The OPDC appoints the SPD, oversees the Office of the SPD, and establishes rules to govern county public defenders, joint county public defenders, and county appointed counsel systems.

Department of Public Safety

The Ohio Department of Public Safety is organized into eight divisions. The Administration Division provides management, coordination, and oversight for the Department. The Ohio State Highway Patrol enforces traffic laws and commercial motor safety regulations and protects state property, the Governor, and visiting dignitaries. The Bureau of Motor Vehicles oversees driver and motor vehicle licensing and registration. The Investigative Unit enforces Ohio's liquor, tobacco sale, and food stamp rules. The Emergency Management Agency coordinates statewide preparation for, response to, and recovery from emergencies and disasters. Emergency Medical Services oversees the certification of emergency medical technicians (EMTs) and firefighters and provides that these people are properly trained, educated, and prepared for emergency situations. The Homeland Security Division coordinates all homeland security activities of state agencies and local entities and oversees the licensing and regulation of private investigators and security guards. The Office of Criminal Justice Services identifies justice issues, evaluates programs, and develops technology, training, and products for criminal justice professionals and communities.

The Department may charge additional fees not found in rule or statute as several sections of the Revised Code grant a division of the Department the authority to establish reasonable fees that are not found in rule or statute. In addition, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles charges an additional donation fee for a large number of special license plates found in Chapter 4503. of the Revised Code.

Public Utilities Commission

The five-member Public Utilities Commission of Ohio (PUCO) is charged with providing varying degrees of regulation of utility services and the for-profit providers of those services. It is funded by assessments on the telephone, motor transportation, electric, gas, natural gas, pipeline, water, heating and cooling, railway, and sewage disposal companies it regulates, through rules and orders issued under a process that can include formal hearings.

Power Siting Board

The Power Siting Board (PSB) exists within PUCO. It is responsible for regulating the siting of large electric generation, electric transmission, and gas or natural gas transmission facilities, by issuing certificates authorizing their construction at specific locations. That process entails a review of plans, including through formal hearings. The Public Utilities Commission, Environmental Protection Agency, and the departments of Health, Development, Agriculture, and Natural Resources are joined on PSB by four (nonvoting) legislators and one representative of the public (who are paid and receive expenses). PSB is funded through PUCO's budget.

Public Works Commission

The Ohio Public Works Commission operates two programs that provide funding to local governments for local infrastructure capital improvements. The State Capital Improvement Program receives funding from general revenue bonds. The Local Transportation Improvement Program receives funding from the motor fuel tax. The programs provide grants, loans, and financing for roads, bridges, culverts, water supply systems, wastewater systems, storm water collection systems, solid waste disposal facilities, and other projects. Local district public works integrating committees recommend projects to the Commission for funding consideration. The Commission is authorized to charge a fee for receiving notice of a public hearing, but does not do so.

Racing Commission

The State Racing Commission licenses horse racing participants and regulates the horse racing industry in Ohio. The Commission reports charging licensees every five years $34-$39 for fingerprinting or refingerprinting costs. The amount covers the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Bureau of Criminal Investigations costs, or the Association of Racing Commissioners International charge for a multi-state license. The Board is not authorized to raise any statutorily set fees, however, since most of the fees the Board charges are fixed by rule, those fees can be changed.

Ohio Rail Development Commission

The Ohio Rail Development Commission (ORDC) is an independent agency within the Department of Transportation. The Commission has 14 members, including 2 public representatives and 4 nonvoting legislators; the departments of Transportation and Development both have ex-officio membership. ORDC oversees economic development and rail-highway safety grant and loan programs, may issue revenue bonds, grants rail franchises, and administers federal and state funding for rail safety projects. The Commission is funded through the Department of Transportation's budget.

According to ORDC, because there are currently no passenger rail franchises sponsored by ORDC in Ohio, there are no fees being charged at this time. ORDC does own some rail property. Operating franchises and any leases, licenses, or easements charged for utilities, parking lots, etc., are at market rate as defined by a survey of other railroads for similar items conducted by ORDC staff several years ago. These charges normally include an annual cost adjustment factor. The largest real estate holding of the ORDC is the 160-mile Panhandle Rail Line. The charges for the operation on that line are set in an Operating Agreement consistent with the original 1992 Certificates of Participation that financed the original purchase. Income from nonfiber optic leases, licenses, or easements on that line remain with the operator to be spent on rail line improvements.

Board of Regents

The Ohio Board of Regents coordinates higher education in Ohio. Its primary missions are to approve degree programs, to distribute funds to public higher education institutions and to promote Ohioans' access to higher education. The Board has statutory authority to coordinate, recommend, advise, and direct state higher education policy for Ohio's institutions. It is also important to note that the Ohio Board of Regents contracts consultants to review certificate of authorization requests and subsequent reviews. Institutions submitting these requests are responsible for the consultant's fee and expenses related to the review of the request. The requesting institution remits payment to the Ohio Board of Regents, and the Board, in turn, reimburses the consultants.

Respiratory Care Board

The Ohio Respiratory Care Board regulates and licenses respiratory care professionals and home medical equipment (HME) facilities. The Board may also grant a limited permit to provide respiratory care to individuals meeting certain qualifications (R.C. 4761.04). The Board is authorized to charge fees for licensure and renewal. The Board is also authorized to charge an examination fee, but an outside entity currently administers the examination, and the Board does not receive any fee. The Board is authorized to raise most of its fees with Controlling Board approval, but not more than 50% above the statutory amounts (R.C. 4761.08). The fee for conducting an inspection of a HME facility is based on the hourly cost of conducting the inspection and the number of hours, including preparation, used to conduct the inspection (O.A.C. 4761:1-8-03). The late fee assessed if an HME provider fails to renew its license on time ranges from $100 to $400 depending on when the renewal application is filed with the Board.

The State Board of Sanitarian Registration

The State Board of Sanitarian Registration regulates sanitarians (professionals engaged in the practice of environmental health) and sanitarian training agencies. The Board is authorized in statute to charge fees for registration and registration renewal. The Board is authorized to raise these fees with Controlling Board approval, but not more than 50% above the statutory amounts. The Board may charge other fees in accordance with rules adopted under R.C. Chapter 119. The Board must charge a fee for the required sanitarian examination that does not exceed the actual cost of conducting the examination – the fee is currently $110. Under its rules, the Board is authorized to charge a nominal fee if an individual requests written notification about Board meetings. The rules also provide that an individual may renew an expired certificate of registration that is less than three years past its renewal date if the individual pays the appropriate renewal fee for each lapsed year. Beyond three years, the individual must reapply for a new certificate. (O.A.C. 4736-11-09.)

School Facilities Commission

The Ohio School Facilities Commission provides funding, management oversight, and technical assistance to school districts for the construction and renovation of classroom facilities. The main program, the Classroom Facilities Assistance Program (CFAP), is a graduated, cost-sharing program where a school district's portion of the total cost of the project and priority for state assistance are based on the district's relative wealth. Other programs address the particular needs of certain types of school districts prior to their eligibility for CFAP assistance. Community schools do not receive direct state funding for classroom facilities, but they may apply to the Commission for loan guarantees to assist them in securing loans from private financial institutions for the acquisition of facilities.

State School for the Blind

The Ohio State School for the Blind is a residential school providing a comprehensive education from kindergarten through grade 12 to blind and visually impaired children who are Ohio residents. Cost for tuition, room, and board are paid by the state. The State School for the Blind does not charge fees.

State School for the Deaf

The Ohio State School for the Deaf is a residential school providing a comprehensive education from preschool through grade 12 to deaf and hearing-impaired children who are Ohio residents. Cost for tuition, room, and board are paid by the state. The Alice Cogswell Preschool Program enrolls children up to five years of age, including deaf or hearing-impaired children and hearing children whose parents or siblings are deaf or hearing impaired. Children with individualized education programs (IEPs) for their hearing disabilities are not charged for the preschool program during the school year, but they must pay weekly fees for the summer preschool program and for child care services before and after school. Children without IEPs must pay weekly fees year round to cover both the educational and child care services.

Secretary of State

The Office of the Secretary of State (SOS) serves two primary functions: business administration and elections oversight. The office's Business Services Division receives and approves articles of incorporation for Ohio corporations and grants licenses to out-of-state corporations seeking to do business in Ohio. Limited partnerships, limited liability companies, and other entities also file documents with the Division. The Division also approves amendments to filed documents; receives mergers, consolidations, and dissolution documents; and registers trademarks, trade names, service marks, and fictitious names.

The SOS also supervises the administration of the election laws; approves specified ballot language; reviews statewide initiative and referendum petitions; chairs the Ohio Ballot Board, which approves ballot language for statewide issues; canvasses votes for all elective state offices and state-wide issues; investigates election fraud and irregularities; trains election officials; and reimburses counties for poll worker training costs. The office's Elections Division compiles and maintains election statistics, political party records, and other election-related records. Statewide candidates campaign finance reports are filed with the office, as are the reports for certain political action committees and political contributing entities, state political parties, legislative campaign funds, and certain other political entities.

The Senate is the upper chamber of the Ohio General Assembly, whose members serve four-year terms. The Ohio Senate does not charge fees.

Commissioners of the Sinking Fund

The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund administer the debt service payments and administrative expenses related to state general obligation bonds issued for the following purposes: primary and secondary education facilities, higher education facilities, coal research and development, parks and natural resources capital improvements, conservation projects, local infrastructure projects, and highways. The Sinking Fund has an office in the Treasurer of State's office. The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund charges no fees.

State Board of Speech Pathology and Audiology

The State Board of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology regulates and licenses speech language pathologists, audiologists, speech-language pathology aides, and audiology aides. The Board is required to charge fees for licensure, conditional licensure, licensure renewal, late licensure renewal, and reinstatement of licenses after revocation. The fee amounts, and increases and decreases in these amounts, must be determined by the Board in rules that are subject to approval by the Joint Commission on Agency Rule Review.

If the Board reinstates a revoked license after it has expired, the licensee must pay a reinstatement fee in an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last preceding regular renewal date on which it is reinstated plus any delinquent fees accrued from the time of revocation, if such delinquent fees are prescribed by the Board in rule. According to the Board's Executive Director, the Board does not currently prescribe delinquent fees.

The Board may, by rule, waive all or part of the fees it collects for licensure or licensure renewal when the license is issued less than 100 days before the date on which the license will expire.

State Employment Relations Board

The State Employment Relations Board (SERB) administers the Public Employees' Collective Bargaining Law (PECBL; R.C. Chapter 4117.). In addition to other duties, SERB must perform all of the following duties: oversee representative elections, certify exclusive bargaining representatives, monitor and enforce statutory dispute resolution procedures, mediate collective bargaining negotiations, adjudicate unfair labor practice charges, determine unauthorized strike claims, and provide information and training to parties in contract negotiations. SERB may establish fees in rule and has adopted the rules in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (R.C. Chapter 119.). Although the PECBL and the rules adopted pursuant to it are silent as to whether SERB may conduct seminars and charge a fee for seminars the PECBL expressly permits SERB to deposit fees from seminars into the Training, Publications, and Grants Fund and allows SERB to use that Fund in part to defray the costs of planning, organizing, and conducting training seminars.

State Personnel Board of Review

The State Personnel Board of Review (PBR) reviews appeals filed by classified exempt employees in the civil service at the state and local levels in order to provide all parties with a fair, comprehensive, and impartial review of their respective claims. The PBR's jurisdiction also includes university and general health districts. Appeals typically involve disputed layoffs, abolishments, displacements, removals, reductions, and reclassifications, but PBR also hears appeals filed by nonexempt classified employees who have not organized, and nonexempt employees whose bargaining agreement specifies a right to appeal to the Board. The Board has jurisdiction over investigations, whistle blower cases, and Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) violations as well. The Board also monitors and assists Ohio's 220 municipal civil service commissions and personnel boards to ensure that Ohio's civil service laws are being uniformly interpreted.

Although the Board charges a fixed fee for the magnetically recorded tapes that an appealing party requests from the Board, it is a deposit fee. If the deposit exceeds the costs of the items, then the Board issues a refund of the excess. If the deposit does not cover the full amount, then the Board bills the appealing party for the outstanding balance.

Supreme Court/Judiciary

The Supreme Court, created by Section 1, Article IV, Ohio Constitution, is the state's highest court. Pursuant to Section 2, Article IV, Ohio Constitution, it has: (1) original jurisdiction in: (a) quo warranto, mandamus, habeas corpus, prohibition, and procedendo actions, (b) causes on review as is necessary to its complete determination, and (c) the admission to the practice of law, the discipline of persons so admitted, and all other matters relating to the practice of law, and (2) appellate jurisdiction in: (a) appeals from courts of appeals as a matter of right in cases originating in those courts or involving constitutional questions, (b) appeals from courts of appeals in felony cases on leave first obtained, (c) direct appeals from common pleas courts or other trial-level courts as a matter of right in cases in which the death penalty was imposed, (d) revisory jurisdiction of the administrative officer or agency proceedings as is conferred by law, (e) cases of great public interest in which it directs a court of appeals to certify that court's record, and (f) cases certified by a court of appeals to resolve a conflict with a decision of another court of appeals. Pursuant to Section 5, Article IV, the Supreme Court has general superintendence over the state's courts and the duty to adopt rules to exercise that power, the duty to prescribe rules governing practice and procedure in those courts, the authority to adopt rules regarding uniform record keeping by those courts, and the duty to adopt rules governing the admission to the practice of law and the discipline of persons so admitted. Most of the fees the Court charges are authorized or required by the rules or regulations it has adopted, or by a fee schedule it has adopted under a mandate imposed by one of the regulations.

Regarding certain references in the parts of the fee table set forth below that pertain to fees related to Continuing Legal Education (CLE) for attorneys: (1) Gov.BarR. X, section 2(B)(1) is a provision that requires the Supreme Court Commission on Continuing Legal Education (the CLE Commission) to administer CLE requirements, including adopting regulations and performing administrative functions, (2) Gov.BarR. X, section 2(B)(3) authorizes CLE Commission to assess "reasonable application fees" for accreditation or sponsors, and (3) CLE R. 901 requires the CLE Commission to adopt a fee schedule reasonably related to actual necessary costs incurred in performance of duty. Also, pursuant to Gov.Jud.R. IV and Gov.BarR. X, the CLE Commission administers CLE requirements that apply to judges, and the CLE-related fees identified in the table also apply regarding the judicial CLE requirements.

Tuition Trust Authority

The Ohio Tuition Trust Authority administers two state programs for individuals to use to save money for college tuition of their designated beneficiaries. These programs are qualified for favorable tax treatment under federal law. To fund its operation, the Authority is authorized to use amounts not immediately needed to pay tuition under the Guaranteed Plan and to assess reasonable fees against the assets of investment accounts and from account managers. The Authority currently funds its entire operations from these fees and transfers, and it does not receive any amount from the General Revenue Fund.

Utility Radiological Safety Board

The Utility Radiological Safety Board (URSB) does not regulate, but is responsible for developing state policy regarding nuclear power safety, including state interface with federal policies and agencies. Member agencies are the Emergency Management Agency, Ohio Environmental Protection Agency, and Public Utilities Commission and the departments of Health, Agriculture, and Commerce. The Board can adopt rules regarding the conduct of its business, which includes undertaking investigations and producing studies. The Board is funded through assessments on nuclear utilities.

Ohio Veterans' Home

The Ohio Veterans Home agency provides a safe, healthful, home environment for eligible Ohio veterans. The agency is dedicated to "serving those who served" with a safe living environment for residents of veterans' homes so they can achieve their highest level of functional ability. Long-term, around-the-clock medical and nursing care is available, together with recreational, social, and spiritual services. Residents must be assessed a fee to pay a portion of the expense of their support. The fee is based upon a resident's ability to pay, and the actual average/diem cost incurred by the agency in the support and care of the resident. In no case can the fee exceed the difference between the/diem amount paid to the state on behalf of that resident, whether by the Department of Veterans' Affairs or other sources, and the actual average/diem cost incurred by the agency.

Ohio Water Development Authority

The Ohio Water Development Authority (OWDA) provides financing for water supply, wastewater, and water pollution control facilities and also for solid waste and energy resource development facilities. The financing primarily comes from the sale of municipal revenue bonds through loans to local governments in Ohio and from the issuance of industrial revenue bonds. OWDA charges an administrative fee to secure a loan and issue bonds. The fee is established in guidelines adopted by OWDA pursuant to rules adopted under statute. The guidelines indicate that an administrative fee is not being charged or is not applicable for five programs.

Bureau of Workers' Compensation

Administrator of Workers' Compensation (Administrator) administers the state workers' compensation system, which provides coverage for injuries or occupational diseases that occur on the job. An employer either pays premiums into the State Insurance Fund ("state fund employers") or is permitted to self-insure. The Administrator determines an employer's premium, which generally is based on the degree of hazard of the occupation, the number of workers' compensation claims an employer has had, and the employer's payroll. State fund employers also are charged specified fees as a percentage of the employer's premium. A self-insuring employer pays compensation and benefits directly to an employee or the employee's dependents. Self-insuring employers pay an assessment to the Bureau of Workers' Compensation (BWC) based on the employer's paid compensation and must make a contribution as needed to the Self-Insuring Employers' Guaranty Fund. BWC may charge an application fee for self-insurance, but chooses not to do so. Additionally, certain employers elect to obtain coverage and pay biennial premiums to the Coal-Workers' Pneumoconiosis Fund or the Marine Industry Fund. Claimants may qualify for benefits from these funds through federal acts. Also, H.B. 67 of the 126th General Assembly transferred the administration of the Public Employment Risk Reduction Program (PERRP) from the Department of Commerce to BWC. With some exceptions, administrative rules generally are adopted under the Administrative Procedure Act (R.C. Chapter 119.), and many rules require the approval of the Workers' Compensation Oversight Commission before they can be adopted.

Department of Youth Services

The Department of Youth Services (DYS) is primarily responsible for receiving custody of all children who are committed to the Department's custody after a delinquent child adjudication under R.C. Chapter 2152. While a child is in the custody of the Department, the Department is required to cause a study to be made of that child and decide how best to treat the child. Generally, the Department also controls and manages all state institutions or facilities established or created for the training or rehabilitation of delinquent children committed to the Department. DYS charges no fees.
