Jennifer A. Parker

Legislative Service Commission

Sub. H.B. 38

124th General Assembly
(S. Finance & Financial Institutions)

If a young adult appears to be eligible for independent living services from a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, an alcohol and drug addiction services board, or a community mental health board, specifies that the public children services agency or private child placing agency must contact the provider of alcohol, drug addiction, or mental health services that has been designated by the board to determine the young adult's eligibility for services.
