Bethany Boyd

Legislative Service Commission

Sub. H.B. 390

124th General Assembly
(S. Ways and Means)

Clarifies that the contract extending the time for payment of taxes and assessments charged against real property or manufactured or mobile homes (owned by a member of the military covered by the bill) must specify that payments begin in the seventh month after the member's duty terminates.

Includes kilowatt-hour tax revenue in the calculation for the temporary modification of the formula for making distributions to certain local government funds.

Makes other technical changes to those distributions.
