

*Synopsis of Senate Committee Amendments

Christopher O'Connell

Legislative Service Commission

Sub. H.B. 133

125th General Assembly
(S. Public Utilities)

Authorizes the Director of Development to provide financial assistance under the Energy Efficiency Revolving Loan Program in the form of direct loans or grants.

Modifies the authority of lending institutions to provide financial assistance under the Energy Efficiency Revolving Loan Program, to allow assistance in the form of loan participation agreements at below market rates or linked deposits, rather than loans at below market rates or loan guarantees or linked deposits for such loans.

Limits the total of all grants provided in a fiscal year to not more than 10% of the revenue paid into the Energy Efficiency Revolving Loan Fund during the previous fiscal year.

Removes apparently redundant provisions pertaining to the necessity for the establishment of the Energy Efficiency Revolving Loan Program.
