

*Synopsis of Senate Committee Amendments

Greg Schwab

Legislative Service Commission

Sub. H.B. 139

125th General Assembly
(S. Insurance, Commerce & Labor)

Removes the House-proposed increases in the financial responsibility requirements for operating a motor vehicle.

Removes a House-imposed prohibition on the award of damages to the plaintiff in a civil action for noneconomic losses incurred during an automobile accident, if the plaintiff was operating a personal automobile without proof of financial responsibility at the time of the accident.

Removes House changes that would end the use of a certificate of the Treasurer of State confirming the deposit of the required amount of money or securities with the Treasurer to be given as proof of financial responsibility.
