Synopsis of Senate Committee Amendments*

Nicholas A. Keller

Am. Sub. H.B. 109 130th General Assembly (S. Rules)

Removes the proposed requirement in the House-passed version that individuals permitted to recommend or fit hearing aids under the bill have a regular place of business within Ohio to be eligible to sell and distribute hearing aids.

Replaces the proposed requirement in the House-passed version that a person selling or distributing a hearing aid through the mail to the ultimate consumer must have evidence of prior in-person evaluation with a requirement that the person receive a written acknowledgement from the ultimate consumer that an in-person examination by a licensed professional has been recommended.
