Synopsis of Senate Committee Amendments*

Lisa Sandberg

Sub. H.B. 309

130th General Assembly
(S. Civil Justice)

Returns to existing law the provision that generally requires a court of common pleas to collect $26 as additional filing fees in each new civil action or proceeding for purpose of providing financial assistance to legal aid societies and State Public Defender's office, subject to specified exemptions, by: (1) removing from the bill the elimination of existing exemptions for proceedings concerning annulments, dissolutions of marriage, divorces, legal separation, spousal support, marital property or separate property distribution, support, or other domestic relations matters, and (2) removing from the bill a provision that would have required an additional filing fee of $15 in custody, visitation, and parentage actions.
