Synopsis of House Committee Amendments*

Emily E. Wendel

Sub. S.B. 205

130th General Assembly

(As Reported by H. Policy and Legislative Oversight)

Specifies circumstances under which an absent voter's ballot identification envelope is not considered incomplete, although the voter's date of birth provided on the envelope is different from the date of birth contained in the statewide voter registration database.

Requires a board of elections to contact an absent voter whose identification envelope is incomplete or does not match the information in the statewide voter registration database by mail to inform the voter of the defect.

Permits such an absent voter to deliver a written form to the office of the board, in person or by mail, not later than the seventh day after the day of the election in order to cure the defect.

Specifies that the bill takes effect June 1, 2014.
