
DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS SERVICES

- Clarifies that the moratorium prohibiting induction of a person into the Ohio Veterans Hall of Fame may be waived by the Veterans Hall of Fame Executive Committee if the person is over 70 and regardless of whether the person holds a qualifying position.

Ohio Veterans Hall of Fame

(R.C. 5904.01)

The act clarifies that the moratorium, which prohibits induction into the Ohio Veterans Hall of Fame of certain public officials and employees until two years after the official or employee has vacated the government position, may be waived by the Veterans Hall of Fame Executive Committee. The moratorium may be waived only if the person is over age 70, and may be waived whether the person currently holds the position or has vacated it. Under continuing law, the moratorium applies to the following persons: state elected officials, members of the General Assembly, members of the Ohio Veterans Hall of Fame Foundation, members of the Veterans Hall of Fame Executive Committee, members of the Governor's staff, members of the Veterans Hall of Fame staff, members of any county veterans service commission, and the Director of Veterans Services.
