Governor's budget proposal – cash balance (VETOED)

(R.C. 107.03)

The act would have prohibited the Governor from submitting a state budget to the General Assembly that proposed a GRF beginning cash balance exceeding the ending fund balance required by law. Under continuing law, at the end of a fiscal year, OBM must determine the surplus revenue from the fiscal year and transfer most of the unobligated, unencumbered amount of that surplus revenue from the GRF first to the Budget Stabilization Fund and then to the Expanded Sales Tax Holiday Fund.⁷⁰
