Legal Basis: ORC 5149.30 to 5149.36; Section 383.10 of H.B. 110 of the 134th G.A. (originally established by H.B. 204 of the 113th G.A.)

Purpose: This line item's primary purpose is to fund grants to counties to operate intensive supervision and other community sanctions programming for felony offenders in lieu of prison or jail commitments. In general, the purpose of the community nonresidential program is to provide the judges of the courts of common pleas with sentencing alternatives for felony offenders, such as intensive supervision, day reporting, work release, community service, counseling, drug testing, and electronic monitoring.

Since FY 2018, a portion of this line item supports grants awarded under (1) the “Targeting Community Alternatives to Prison” (T-CAP) Program (described below), and (2) the Justice Reinvestment and Incentive Grant, formerly known as the Probation Improvement and Incentive Grant Program, the purpose of which is to reduce the number of low-level felony and community control violators being sent to prison.

T-CAP focuses on offenders who are sentenced to 12 months or less for nonviolent, nonsex, nonmandatory fifth degree felony offenses, and whose criminal history does not include any prior violent felony, sex offense, or felony drug trafficking convictions. Beginning in FY 2022, the voluntary T-CAP Program has been expanded to include fourth degree felony offenders, in addition to fifth degree felony offenders as under continuing law.

Purpose: This line item pays for subsidies that fund the operation of 17 community-based correctional facilities (CBCFs), which are formed by counties or groups of counties with populations of 200,000 or more. These facilities divert nonviolent felony offenders from state prison and are operated by facility governing boards, which are advised by judicial advisory boards. The state provides 100% of the financing for the construction, renovation, maintenance, and operation of these residential facilities, each of which house up to 200 felony offenders and offer services such as education, job training, and substance abuse treatment as an alternative to incarceration in state prison.
