Source: Dedicated Purpose Fund Group: Summer camp fees; tuition fees charged for preschool services for hearing siblings and hearing children of staff as permitted by staffing levels

Legal Basis: R.C. 3325.07; Section 393.10 of H.B. 110 of the 134th G.A. (originally established by Controlling Board on July 1, 2000; subsequently established via R.C. 3325.07 by H.B. 640 of the 123rd G.A.)

Purpose: This line item assists with the cost of payroll and instructional supplies for preschool summer camp programs provided through the Alice Cogswell Center (ACC) and Early Learning Center (ELC). The summer camps provide educational opportunities that assist children who have hearing and visual impairments with vocabulary and language development and hands-on learning activities and experiments. During regular school hours, the ACC provides early childhood education programs and childcare for children ages six weeks to three years who are deaf or hard of hearing. The ELC provides a preschool program for children ages 3-5 with hearing or visual impairments. According to OSD, no funds have been spent from this item in recent years due to minimal amounts of revenue collected from preschool summer camp programs. The ACC and ELC are primarily funded by GRF line item 221321, Operations.
