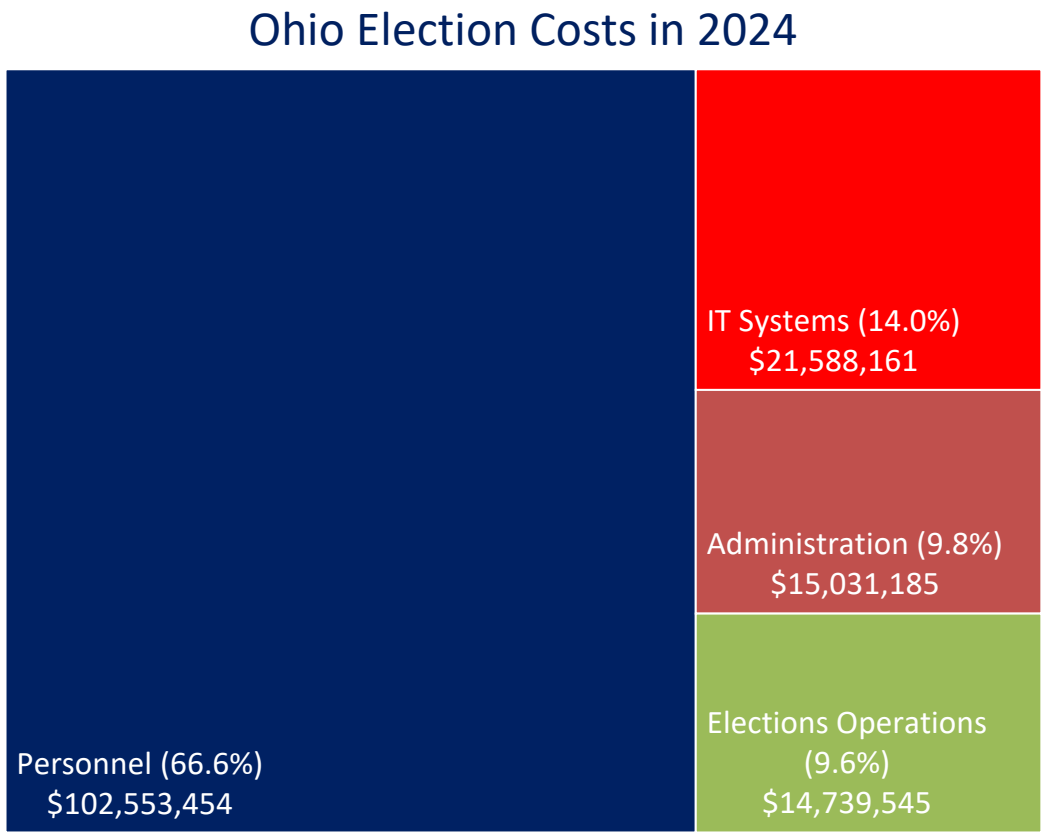
Boards of Elections spent $153.9 million for conducting primary and general elections in 2024



Source: Ohio Secretary of State

- Personnel costs amounted to $102.6 million, two-thirds of the total.
- Of the remaining $51.3 million:
  - $21.6 million was for voting, pollbooks, and voter registration systems;
  - $15.0 million went to election administration;
  - $14.7 million was for election-related operations.
- Over 7.6 million votes were cast at 3,325 polling locations in the primary and general elections.