

*Synopsis of House Committee Amendments

John S. Van Norman

Legislative Service Commission

Sub. S.B. 18

125th General Assembly

(H. Municipal Government & Urban Revitalization)

Adds to the Senate-passed version provisions tying certain purposes ("in the interest of the public health, safety, convenience, comfort, prosperity, or general welfare") to certain kinds of permissible county and township zoning regulations and, in doing so, limiting the application of certain kinds of regulations to nonresidential property (secs. 303.02 and 519.02).

Adds to the Senate-passed version provisions allowing counties and townships to adopt landscaping and architectural standards regulating both residential and nonresidential zones, and permitting the establishment of those standards only for the purposes of the public convenience, comfort, prosperity, or general welfare (and no longer the public health or safety) (secs. 303.02, 303.161, 519.02, and 519.171).

Adds to the Senate-passed version provisions allowing students enrolled in a community school sponsored by their resident school district to participate in extracurricular activities offered at the district's schools (sec. 3313.537).
