Synopsis of House Committee Amendments*

Audra Tidball

Am. Sub. S.B. 258 130th General Assembly (H. Rules and Reference)

Removes the January 1, 2015, implementation date for the bill's provisions concerning pharmacy audits.

Adds a provision allowing optometrists to continue to use in the practice of optometry certain analgesics (pain-relieving drugs) that are controlled substances and could be used by optometrists before the bill's effective date, including (1) preparations with limited amounts of hydrocodone or codeine or (2) drugs that currently are not controlled substances but are reclassified as such after the bill's effective date.
