Purpose: Dollars go to local government units in cases of disaster. When a federal disaster is declared and the amount of damages is determined, governmental assistance is as follows: 75 percent federal; 12 ½ percent state; and 12 ½ percent local. If the disaster is not a federally declared disaster, there may be a legislative initiative to provide assistance to the area. In these instances, the state usually provides 87 ½ percent of the costs, and the local share is 12 ½ percent. (Expenditure history includes line item 745-601 in FY 1994 through 1996.)

Legal Basis: agency line established by Am. Sub. H.B. 117 of the 121st G.A.

Purpose: In the FY 1998-1999 biennium, accounting changes provided that federal funds formerly deposited into the GRF and funds 344, 345, and 346 are deposited into this fund (Fund 339). These federal funds are used to reimburse FEMA-approved local disaster services organizations (approximately 62) for about 50 percent of their civil defense personnel costs. Moneys also pay for civil defense training, and hazardous material training. When federal dollars are available through 83.526, National Urban Search and Rescue Response System, dollars are used for urban search and rescue. In the course of some enforcement activity, cash and/or assets are seized and held as evidence. Once a court determination is made, assets may be sold or destroyed. Cash and asset forfeitures may then placed into this fund and must be spent for enforcement related purposes.

Legal Basis: OCR 5502.14; the Department of Public Safety received authority to enforce liquor control and food stamp laws through Am. Sub. H.B. 162 of the 121st G.A. This authority was transferred from the Department and Liquor Control and the Department of Human Services. Am. Sub. H.B. 163 of the 123rd G.A. combines the separate staffs into a single enforcement group.

Purpose: The Liquor Enforcement and Food Stamp Contraband funds were consolidated into a single fund, Investigative Contraband, Forfeiture and Other Fund. Funds must be used for enforcement activities related to liquor and food stamps contraband and forfeiture.
